Brazil Military Told To Crash Goulart Bloc

Wavering Congress Fails To Determine Powers of Leftists

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Brazil's interim government today ordered units of the army, navy and air force into action to subdue southern supporters of leftist Vice President Joao Goulart.

Goulart claims he is the rightful president of Brazil in view of the resignation of President Janio Quadros. The wavering national Congress finally has voted to accept him as president but has not decided how much power he should have.

A source close to the Air Ministry said military planes left Porto Alegre, capital of Goulart's southern stronghold, to escort him to some place in Brazil and aircraft loyal to the government had been ordered to patrol the frontier and intercept him.

A communique from the military-dominated National Telecommunications Commission Council said units of the army, air force and navy were taking part in an "action in force" against Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil's southernmost state.

In defiance, the "Voice of Legality," a chain of Rio Grande do Sul radio stations, announced that all civilians in the state had been called to arms. Porto Alegre, the state capital, was reported surrounded by trenches and barricades.

Rio Grande do Sul's governor, Leonel Brizola, is Goulart's brother-in-law. Gov. Brizola and Gen. Jose Machado Lopes, head of the army in the state, have proclaimed their support of the vice president.

Machado Lopes Wednesday defied an order from acting President Ranieri Mazzilli relieving him of command of the 60,000-man southern army, considered one of the best-trained and equipped of Brazil's four armies. Only the army in Rio de Janeiro is larger. In addition, Rio Grande do Sul is the home of fight-loving gauchos—cowboys—who roam the flat wheat-growing and cattle-raising state.

Apparently the only air force unit—or most of it—deserted Brizola and Machado Lopes, however.

The southern state has no navy. But Brizola sank three barges in the entrance to Porto Alegre's inland harbor, temporarily blocking it, when Brazilian warships were reported en route there four days ago.

Lady Driver Loses License For Lifetime

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP)—A 24-year-old Portsmouth woman who lead patrolmen on a 100-mile-an-hour chase from Circleville to Chillicothe has lost her driving permit for life.

The woman, Mrs. Norma Flannery, pleaded guilty to four to six charges resulting from the chase by Chillicothe police and state patrol early last Friday.

Mrs. Flannery was fined $500, sentenced to six months in the Cincinnati workhouse and lost her driving rights permanently for driving without a driver's license. This charge was filed by the highway patrol.

She was also fined $50 and costs on a speeding charge filed by the patrol and on a speeding and reckless operation charge filed by Chillicothe police.

She will go on trial on the other two charges, of drunk driving and driving while her operator's permit was revoked after her jail sentence is completed, Municipal Judge William Jones said.

A truck placed across U.S. 23 helped Chillicothe police in their arrest of Mrs. Flannery. State patrolmen said they clocked her auto at 115 miles an hour.

ATLANTA CALMLY ACCEPTS INTEGRATION — Only a few scattered minor "incidents" marked the state of integration in Atlanta, Ga. Six persons scattered among the four high schools integrated were arrested for failing to respond quickly enough to police orders to move on. Two of the six here are hustled into a police car.

Atlanta Sees Success for Mixed Schools

ATLANTA (AP)—Heartened by praise from President Kennedy, Atlanta City and school officials believed today the critical period was over in the desegregation of four public high schools.

The second day of integrated schools began quietly, as did the first Negro pupils assigned to the four schools walked unescorted into the police-guarded buildings. Mayor William B. Hartsfield said firmly the city has survived its most serious crisis.

But police continued elaborate security measures, ready to act promptly, as they did Wednesday, when five men were arrested near the schools. One of the men said he was a member of the Nazi party.

Inside the schools nine Negroes—six girls and three boys—attended classes and ate in the cafeterias, shattering Atlanta's century-old tradition of segregation.

The persons most vitally concerned—the pupils and teachers—took the transition in stride, quietly and without incident.

Several of the Negroes said their reception was about what they would expect when entering any strange new school. All agreed they found no hostility or discourtesy among their schoolmates.

Several white pupils reported little attention was paid to the Negroes. Their general feeling was that no one was friendly but no one was particularly unfriendly.

Bridge Falls In Darby Twp.; Road Closed

Traffic on the McKinley Road in Darby Twp. will be halted for a few days following the collapse of a bridge there yesterday.

County Engineer Henry McGrady said the structure caved in after two heavy trucks passed over it. He said the highway from Road No. 21 to Road No. 173 will be closed from 10 to 14 days to allow for emergency repair of the bridge.

The McKinley Road bridge is about 17 miles northwest of Circleville. It spans Buskirk run. According to McGrady, no vehicles were on the bridge when it collapsed. He estimated the repair cost at about $4,000.

The engineer said the structure was manufactured by the Champion Bridge Co. which quit making that particular model 81 years ago. The exact date of erection here was not determined.

Driver Held Following Wild Chase

Larry G. Keith, of Lockbourne Air Force Base, was in the custody of the base Provost Marshal today after a wild violation-filled ride through Pickaway County last night.

Keith started his dash while driving east on Route 316 about 500 feet west of Route 23 in South Bloomfield. He passed and side-swiped a car driven by Walter Berger, of California, also going east on Route 316 about 9:45 p. m.

Keith forced the Berger vehicle from the highway and it struck a telephone pole and sheared off about 25 feet of fencing on the Clester Rose property before halting in a ditch.

Keith's auto swerved to the opposite side of the road, struck a bridge guard rail and smashed into a gas meter. The Ashville-Harrison volunteer fire department was called to watch the gas leak until Ohio Fuel Gas Co. workmen arrived to close a valve. No fire resulted.

KEITH continued on Route 316. Passing through Ashville, he violated several traffic laws and was pursued by the village police department. Eluding them, the airman drove to his base and crashed through a gate about 10:15.

The South Bloomfield marshal, Harold Bowers, advised Highway Patrol officials of the fleeing car from the accident scene. Contact with the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department established the car was from the air base.

A State Highway Patrolman was sent to Lockbourne to apprehend Keith. The base commander aroused from sleep, approved the release and Keith was returned to South Bloomfield.

At 1:35 a. m. today the airman posted $500 bond in Mayor Harold Tosca's court and was returned to the base to face investigation by the Provost Marshal pending action.

He is slated to appear in court later on charges of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, reckless operation and leaving the scene of an accident, all resulting from the South Bloomfield crash.

Additional charges may be filed later. Marshal Bowers said heavy damage was sustained by the Berger and Keith cars. William Pritchard, a passenger riding in Keith's auto, suffered cuts on his right arm and bruises and lacerations on his legs. He is from Ashville. Three other young passengers were not injured.

Hospital Pays For 12th Baby

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—The 12th child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Mayfield is on the house, medically speaking.

Mrs. Mayfield gave birth at Incarnate Word Hospital Wednesday to a boy. Her other children, nine boys and two girls, also were born at the hospital.

Mayfield, 50, an insurance broker, said the hospital staff had teased him for years about having a baby on the house.

This was the first time that 12 children from one family had been born at Incarnate Word, so hospital officials decided to take care of medical costs for mother and baby.

Charles E. Hayes was arrested by City Police at 9:39 p. m. yesterday after a man passing Hayes' home, Frank Hamp, noticed Mrs. Grace Swift of Lowery Lane lying in a pool of blood near a window in the house.

Officers Gerald Goldsberry and Charles Tomlinson were dispatched to the scene. When they arrived they found Hayes asleep in a chair outside the house.

The policemen awakened him and, according to their report, he appeared to be in a state of heavy intoxication. His clothes and hands were covered with blood.

Loss Set at $7,100 On Dunlap Farm Site

Flames of unknown origin yesterday destroyed a barn and cattle shed on the Dunlap J & J farm on the Dawson-Yankeetown Road about 15 miles northwest of here.

Total damage was estimated at $7,100. The barn contained about 45 tons of baled hay, but no equipment and livestock were housed in either building.

Marshal Ovid Clark and Williamsport Firemen said cause of the blaze was not determined. Value of the barn was set at $5,000 and the cattle shed at $1,200.

Wilson Puckett and family live on the Dunlap farm. The fire was discovered by the Puckett children. Gladys, 15, notified Clark the Williamsport Fire Department.

THE children said they saw smoke coming from the vicinity of the barn and cattle shed, located across the road from the Puckett home.

A tanker and pumper were dispatched by the Williamsport department. Firemen and other helpers battled the blaze for more than an hour.

Deputy Sheriff William Pontious and Marshal Clark later conducted an investigation in an unsuccessful effort to establish cause of the fire.

The lawmen said the hay had been placed in the barn about six weeks ago.

Limited Marked Cruiser 'Illegal'

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Mahoning County Judge Harold S. Rickert Jr. has ruled the use of a "limited marked car" by the Ohio Highway Patrol in making a traffic arrest does not comply with the state code requirements.

The judge has dismissed charges of crossing left of yellow line against Albert Mannsur, 35, of Youngstown. Mannsur was arrested July 4 by a highway patrolman.

A limited marked car has the words "Ohio State Highway Patrol" printed in small letters on the side rather than the customary flying wheel insignia.

Judge Rickert ruled Monday the law required traffic officers to make drivers aware of their presence. At the same time, he added, it tended to make a "mockery of efforts for strict law enforcement."

Urgency Is Seen In Red A-Planning

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union's scrapping of the ban on nuclear testing prompted Western predictions here today that a new explosion may be set off soon.

One diplomat said the Russians must have urgent reasons for the change of policy while uncommitted nations meet in Belgrade, and only three weeks before the meeting of the United Nations General Assembly.

One reason advanced was that perhaps the Russians had certain weapons ready to go and wanted to test them promptly while the season for observations is right.

"We suspect that it is going to be a big and impressive bang," said one Westerner.

The announcement promised to affect the October congress of the Soviet Communist party, called to approve plans for a great program for building homes, factories and for producing more food.

An expensive nuclear program could eat heavily into Soviet capital and postpone the good times even more than the 20 years announced in the party program.

In canceling the three-year moratorium on tests, the Soviet Union issued a warning to the West and pleaded for understanding from the nonaligned nations.

Premier Khrushchev gave the go-ahead to his scientists to test new weapons ranging up to monster bombs with an explosive force of 100 million tons of TNT—5,000 times more powerful than the bomb dropped on Hiroshima in World War II.

The Soviets blamed the United States and its Allies for their decision to resume nuclear testing.

"It is an open secret," said a

The Soviet decision makes no sense at all... is an extreme example of Russian terror tactics... is based on naked power... shows contempt for what the rest of mankind thinks... is a savage nudge to the West that Russia means business.

These are the views of James Marlow, Associated Press news analyst. Read his observations on Page 3.

6,000-word government statement, "that the United States is standing at the threshold of carrying out underground nuclear explosions and only waits for the first suitable pretext to start them."

Because of that, and because France has exploded some bombs the statement said, the Soviet Union has decided to test new bombs and to add to the world-crushing nuclear arsenal it claims it already has.

The statement linked the government's decision to the Berlin crisis as well.

"The Soviet government has been compelled to take this step, whose significance it fully appreciates, under the pressure of the international situation created by the imperialist countries," it said.

"The policy of the leading NATO powers—the United States, Britain, France and the Federal (West) German republic—and of this aggressive bloc as a whole, leaves the Soviet Union no other choice."

The statement appeared to be

Circleville Police will maintain added vigilance in all school zones when classes open tomorrow.

Chief Robert Temple said all available patrolmen will be watching various crossings and school zones in the city. The radar unit also will be in operation, he added.

Chief Temple said the extra measures are needed due to the record enrollment expected here tomorrow, especially in the lower classes.

The chief noted that the Northridge Road - Route 188 detour for Route 22 presents hazards for children heading to classes at Atwater and High St. Schools. He urged children and drivers alike to exercise precaution.

JFK Confident Of Defenses

Soviet Move Called 'Atomic Blackmail'

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today he is confident that U.S. nuclear weapons—in number and capabilities—are "wholly adequate" for the defense of the United States and the free world.

A White House statement, issued after Kennedy met with top government officials and congressional leaders of both parties, said that Russia's announcement of renewing nuclear tests "was primarily a form of atomic blackmail, designed to substitute terror for reason in the present international scene."

The statement said nothing of any plans this country may have to resume testing of its own. It declared:

"What the Soviet Union is obviously testing is not only nuclear devices but the will and determination of the free world to resist such tactics and to defend freedom."

"The President is entirely confident that the size of the U.S. nuclear weapons stockpile and the capabilities of individual weapons and delivery systems are wholly adequate for the defense needs of the United States and the free world."

The big question as Kennedy conferred with leaders of Congress and the administration was whether the United States would resume its own tests quickly.

Thirteen U. S. senators this morning teamed up as sponsors of a resolution urging resumption of tests by America.

Kennedy issued a statement denouncing the Soviet step as a blow to worldwide hopes for disarmament and a "threat to the entire world by increasing the dangers of a thermo-nuclear holocaust."

And word went out from the White House that in the next 24 hours the President wanted policy meetings with his defense, atomic energy and State Department advisers and with congressional chiefs.

The statement did not forecast specific U. S. counter action. But it was learned that the administration has plans ready and preparations made for a quick resumption of testing if Kennedy gives the order.

The Soviet move, coming in the midst of the Berlin crisis, struck top Washington officials as a highly significant turn for the worse in Soviet policy toward the rest of the world with these immediately predictable results:

1. It will produce a new burst of effort by the big powers in the nuclear arms race, especially as the Moscow announcement spoke of developing a 100-megaton bomb (a force equivalent to 100 million tons of TNT).

2. It means an intensification of the Berlin dispute with its danger of a military clash in Germany that could lead to nuclear war.

3. It torpedoed the Geneva conference on a nuclear test ban treaty. The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union opened the conference in the fall of 1958 when they suspended nuclear weapons testing; it had made no progress for months but up to Wednesday all three powers had been unwilling to force an open break.

4. It shows Soviet disregard for opinion in Western and neutralist countries. There had been hope the great powers would agree on a permanent nuclear test ban as a first step toward broad-scale disarmament.

The President and his advisers agreed that the Soviet Union would take a propaganda beating for its decision. The President's statement reflected that conclusion.

"The Soviet government's decision to resume nuclear weapons testing will be met with deepest concern and resentment throughout the world," Kennedy said. "The Soviet Government's decision to resume nuclear weapons testing presents a hazard to every human being throughout the world by increasing the dangers of nuclear fallout."

"The Soviet government's decision to resume nuclear weapons testing presents a hazard to every human being throughout the world by increasing the dangers of nuclear fallout."

Europe Shocked By Red Move

British, French Call Action 'Ridiculous'

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union's decision to resume nuclear tests produced stunned and bitter reaction in non-Communist capitals today.

A spokesman for the British Foreign Office said that if the Kremlin carries out its threat, "We shall be astonished at such a retrograde step."

Noting that no warning of the move had appeared at Wednesday's session of the Geneva test ban talks, the spokesman said: "It is ridiculous to put the blame on the Western powers."

The chief U.S. delegate to the Geneva talks, Arthur H. Dean, said the Soviet Union had "given clear evidence it is no longer interested in a test ban treaty."

"Its statement that it will accept a test ban treaty after general and complete disarmament is, of course, a fraud," said Dean as he prepared to return to Washington.

Britain's foreign secretary, Lord Home, returned to London from vacation to begin studying the Soviet announcement. Prime Minister Harold Macmillan continues his vacation in Scotland. Home and Macmillan were expected to get in touch by telephone to discuss whether Britain would also resume nuclear tests, which she had suspended along with the United States during the Geneva negotiations.

In a rare move, Home personally issued a statement branding the Soviet decision "shocking, contentious and cynical." He accused the Soviets of never negotiating seriously with the Americans and British on a test ban.

France accused the Soviet Union of trying to browbeat the West into submission on Berlin and Germany with the resumption of nuclear tests. A Foreign Ministry official said the Soviet Union is following a "policy of intimidation."

The Dutch government expressed "serious regrets" at the Soviet decision and said "world opinion will be deeply shocked." The Express, only British morning paper to comment, said a further spurt in the nuclear arms race is now inevitable.

Strongest initial editorial reaction elsewhere in Europe came from Stockholm's Aftonbladet, a paper owned by labor unions which frequently reflects the views of the Socialist government.

Aftonbladet said: "The Russian decision to resume the nuclear tests is ruthless and difficult to understand. It seems to be a political misjudgment of gigantic proportions to resume the tests at this time. This is hypocrisy beyond all boundaries."

The judge has dismissed charges of crossing left of yellow line against Albert Mannsur, 35, of Youngstown. Mannsur was arrested July 4 by a highway patrolman.

A limited marked car has the words "Ohio State Highway Patrol" printed in small letters on the side rather than the customary flying wheel insignia.

Judge Rickert ruled Monday the law required traffic officers to make drivers aware of their presence. At the same time, he added, it tended to make a "mockery of efforts for strict law enforcement."

3 Preachers, Woman Bruised in Air Mishap

XENIA, Ohio (AP)—Three Baptist ministers and the wife of one escaped with minor injuries when their four-passenger plane crashed landed late Wednesday at the Xenia Airport.

The pilot, the Rev. Raymond Conner, 31, of Fayetteville, Ark., said he brought the plane down about 30 feet short of the runway about 5:15 p. m.

Woman Is Beaten; Man, 72, Arrested summoned the emergency squad of the Circleville Fire Department. Mrs. Swift was taken to Berger Hospital by the firemen and later transferred to University Hospital, Columbus. She was reported in "fair" condition today.

Hayes told officers he beat Mrs. Swift "because she had been fooling around with another man." Her face and head was badly swollen the policemen said. Hayes said his only weapon in the assault was his hands. They also were swollen.

The 5' 8", 140-pound Hayes was taken to jail after the attack and appeared in Municipal Court this morning.

Judge Sterling Lamb fined Hayes $200 and court costs and sentenced him to six months in the county jail on the assault and battery charge.

He was also fined $50 plus costs on a charge of intoxication. Officers noted Hayes had been involved in several such previous incidents and had a history of intoxication arrests.

Urgency Is Seen In Red A-Planning

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union's scrapping of the ban on nuclear testing prompted Western predictions here today that a new explosion may be set off soon.

One diplomat said the Russians must have urgent reasons for the change of policy while uncommitted nations meet in Belgrade, and only three weeks before the meeting of the United Nations General Assembly.

One reason advanced was that perhaps the Russians had certain weapons ready to go and wanted to test them promptly while the season for observations is right.

"We suspect that it is going to be a big and impressive bang," said one Westerner.

The announcement promised to affect the October congress of the Soviet Communist party, called to approve plans for a great program for building homes, factories and for producing more food.

An expensive nuclear program could eat heavily into Soviet capital and postpone the good times even more than the 20 years announced in the party program.

In canceling the three-year moratorium on tests, the Soviet Union issued a warning to the West and pleaded for understanding from the nonaligned nations.

Premier Khrushchev gave the go-ahead to his scientists to test new weapons ranging up to monster bombs with an explosive force of 100 million tons of TNT—5,000 times more powerful than the bomb dropped on Hiroshima in World War II.

The Soviet decision blamed the United States and its Allies for their decision to resume nuclear testing.

"It is an open secret," said a spokesman for the British Foreign Office said that if the Kremlin carries out its threat, "We shall be astonished at such a retrograde step."

Noting that no warning of the move had appeared at Wednesday's session of the Geneva test ban talks, the spokesman said: "It is ridiculous to put the blame on the Western powers."

The chief U.S. delegate to the Geneva talks, Arthur H. Dean, said the Soviet Union had "given clear evidence it is no longer interested in a test ban treaty."

"Its statement that it will accept a test ban treaty after general and complete disarmament is, of course, a fraud," said Dean as he prepared to return to Washington.

Britain's foreign secretary, Lord Home, returned to London from vacation to begin studying the Soviet announcement. Prime Minister Harold Macmillan continues his vacation in Scotland. Home and Macmillan were expected to get in touch by telephone to discuss whether Britain would also resume nuclear blasts, which she had suspended along with the United States during the Geneva negotiations.

In a rare move, Home personally issued a statement branding the Soviet decision "shocking, contentious and cynical." He accused the Soviets of never negotiating seriously with the Americans and British on a test ban.

France accused the Soviet Union of trying to browbeat the West into submission on Berlin and Germany with the resumption of nuclear tests. A Foreign Ministry official said the Soviet Union is following a "policy of intimidation."

The Dutch government expressed "serious regrets" at the Soviet decision and said "world opinion will be deeply shocked."

The Express, only British morning paper to comment, said a further spurt in the nuclear arms race is now inevitable.

Strongest initial editorial reaction elsewhere in Europe came from Stockholm's Aftonbladet, a paper owned by labor unions which frequently reflects the views of the Socialist government.

Aftonbladet said: "The Russian decision to resume the nuclear tests is ruthless and difficult to understand. It seems to be a political misjudgment of gigantic proportions to resume the tests at this time. This is hypocrisy beyond all boundaries."

The chief noted that the Northridge Road - Route 188 detour for Route 22 presents hazards for children heading to classes at Atwater and High St. Schools. He urged children and drivers alike to exercise precaution.

Police Eye School Zones

Circleville Police will maintain added vigilance in all school zones when classes open tomorrow.

Chief Robert Temple said all available patrolmen will be watching various crossings and school zones in the city. The radar unit also will be in operation, he added.

Chief Temple said the extra measures are needed due to the record enrollment expected here tomorrow, especially in the lower classes.

JFK Confident Of Defenses

Soviet Move Called 'Atomic Blackmail'

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today he is confident that U.S. nuclear weapons—in number and capabilities—are "wholly adequate" for the defense of the United States and the free world.

A White House statement, issued after Kennedy met with top government officials and congressional leaders of both parties, said that Russia's announcement of renewing nuclear tests "was primarily a form of atomic blackmail, designed to substitute terror for reason in the present international scene."

The statement said nothing of any plans this country may have to resume testing of its own. It declared:

"What the Soviet Union is obviously testing is not only nuclear devices but the will and determination of the free world to resist such tactics and to defend freedom."

"The President is entirely confident that the size of the U.S. nuclear weapons stockpile and the capabilities of individual weapons and delivery systems are wholly adequate for the defense needs of the United States and the free world."

The big question as Kennedy conferred with leaders of Congress and the administration was whether the United States would resume its own tests quickly.

Thirteen U. S. senators this morning teamed up as sponsors of a resolution urging resumption of tests by America.

Kennedy issued a statement denouncing the Soviet step as a blow to worldwide hopes for disarmament and a "threat to the entire world by increasing the dangers of a thermo-nuclear holocaust."

And word went out from the White House that in the next 24 hours the President wanted policy meetings with his defense, atomic energy and State Department advisers and with congressional chiefs.

The statement did not forecast specific U. S. counter action. But it was learned that the administration has plans ready and preparations made for a quick resumption of testing if Kennedy gives the order.

The Soviet move, coming in the midst of the Berlin crisis, struck top Washington officials as a highly significant turn for the worse in Soviet policy toward the rest of the world with these immediately predictable results:

1. It will produce a new burst of effort by the big powers in the nuclear arms race, especially as the Moscow announcement spoke of developing a 100-megaton bomb (a force equivalent to 100 million tons of TNT).

2. It means an intensification of the Berlin dispute with its danger of a military clash in Germany that could lead to nuclear war.

3. It torpedoed the Geneva conference on a nuclear test ban treaty. The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union opened the conference in the fall of 1958 when they suspended nuclear weapons testing; it had made no progress for months but up to Wednesday all three powers had been unwilling to force an open break.

4. It shows Soviet disregard for opinion in Western and neutralist countries. There had been hope the great powers would agree on a permanent nuclear test ban as a first step toward broad-scale disarmament.

The President and his advisers agreed that the Soviet Union would take a propaganda beating for its decision. The President's statement reflected that conclusion.

"The Soviet government's decision to resume nuclear weapons testing will be met with deepest concern and resentment throughout the world," Kennedy said.

"The Soviet Government's decision to resume nuclear weapons testing presents a hazard to every human being throughout the world by increasing the dangers of nuclear fallout."

"The Soviet government's decision to resume nuclear weapons testing is a step toward the exercise of precaution."

Europe Shocked By Red Move

British, French Call Action 'Ridiculous'

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union's decision to resume nuclear tests produced stunned and bitter reaction in non-Communist capitals today.

A spokesman for the British Foreign Office said that if the Kremlin carries out its threat, "We shall be astonished at such a retrograde step."

Brazil Military

dered into action against the Goulart-supporting state, is at Sao Paulo, nearly 600 miles northeast of Porto Alegre.

Between Sao Paulo and Rio Grande do Sul are the small states of Parana and Santa Catarina, which are nominally under the command of Machado Lopes.

The Brazilian War Ministry said neither state is supporting Rio Grande do Sul, however.

The start of military action was announced shortly after Congress voted overwhelmingly to set up a parliamentary system of government. But wavering under pressure from Army Minister Odilio Denys and the air force and navy chiefs, the lawmakers could not decide whether the presidency would be a powerful post or only a figurehead.

A joint session in Brasilia voted 258-14 to amend the constitution, abolish the present republican form of government paralleling the U.S. system, and "respect all present elective offices," meaning Goulart's vice presidency and his right to the presidency.

The question of the presidential powers was to be debated in separate sessions of the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate later today. The issue was whether to have a parliamentary system with a strong president as in France, or a system like Italy's where the presidency is a ceremonial office and the governing power lies with the prime minister elected by Parliament.

Congress affirmed its support of Goulart's succession despite the service chiefs' earlier rejection of a proposal to let the vice president return as a figurehead president and a statement from the military leaders reiterating their opposition to Goulart's return to the country.

The military chiefs in a manifesto charged that Goulart was tied too closely to the Communists and said his return as president would set off "a disquieting period of agitation, of tumult and even bloody clashes in cities and towns."

Motel Owner Slashes Arm In Suicide Try

Mrs. Lucille Capretta, 58, operator of the Arrow Motel on Route 23 about seven miles south of Circleville was taken to Berger Hospital about 4 p. m. yesterday after slashing her left arm with a butcher knife.

A passing motorist saw Mrs. Capretta slumped against a fence post and notified the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department.

Deputies Neil Childress and William Pontious were dispatched to the motel. They found the woman, bleeding heavily, at the rear of a small yard behind the motel.

Mrs. Capretta, a widow, told officers she had cut her arm because she was depressed over personal difficulties. An investigation showed she had been drinking. She was treated at the hospital and returned to the motel last night by Sheriff Walton W. Spangler.

A resident at the motel told deputies he did not know anything was wrong with Mrs. Capretta.

Public Sale Canceled

Sheriff Walton W. Spangler today said a public auction sale of chattel property scheduled next Thursday at the Lawless garage in Commercial Point has been canceled.

The property originally for sale stemmed from a case in common pleas court here involving Marlin W. Kessler and others, plaintiff, vs. Earl W. Millar, defendant.

West Berlin 'Untenable' Tag Based on Cold Military Advice

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's statement that West Berlin would be "untenable" if it were subjected to a direct attack by the Soviet Union "obviously reflects the coldly realistic assessment of his top military advisers."

The chief executive, in his news conference Wednesday, went on to say that it is hoped Soviet awareness of U.S. determination to defend West Berlin will prevent Soviet attack.

He termed the few thousand U.S. troops in the city as "hostage to that intent."

Kennedy's comments were different from views expressed in his message to the nation on July 25.

In that speech the President said: "I hear it said that West Berlin is militarily untenable—and so was Stalingrad and so, in fact, was Stalingrad. Any dangerous spot is tenable if men—brave men—will make it so."

The U.S. Army believes that it has about 6,500 brave men in West Berlin, part of the total of slightly over 13,000 American, British and French forces garrisoned in the free part of the old German capital.

Such a force, in an isolated arena 110 miles from the main Allied forces in West Germany, could not be expected to hold out against the massive weight of manpower the Soviet Union could bring to bear. There are estimates that 35 to 40 Soviet divisions are located in adjacent European Russian territory.

Kennedy's mention of direct attack by "the Soviet Union" was interesting in that he made no reference to East German Communist military forces. Some Bonn government officials say the East German army consists of six divisions (which they consider unreliable from the Soviet viewpoint), plus police-type units and an air force.

The defenders of West Berlin would have some basic advantages, even if temporary, including the military precept that defense is easier than attack.

Defense of West Berlin would be city-type fighting—unless of course the Communists wanted to destroy West Berlin by all-out air and ground bombardment.

In city type fighting, some of the firepower effectiveness of modern Soviet arms could be negated, the situation coming nearer to being equalized until overwhelming masses of Soviet manpower poured in.

Could the Berlin garrison be reinforced and re-supplied after it came under attack?

Unless the Western forces wanted to shoot their way through, the closing of the highway and rail line would be simple.

Shutting off the air corridor would be more difficult, involving a decision by the Communists to start shooting down planes. This would mean fighter cover for transport planes. And fighter cover would mean more shooting.

Which would take the whole matter to the threshold of general war.

Stock Mart Prices Move Some Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — A slight flurry by defense-related issues greeted news that Russia has decided to resume testing of nuclear weapons as the stock market moved a bit higher early this afternoon. Trading was quiet.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .36 at 255.10 with industrials up .70, rails up .20 and utilities down .20.

The major steelmakers opened down moderately as a result of President Kennedy's recommendation that a steel price increase be avoided this fall. Some recovered later and posted gains.

Most of the aircraft-missiles, rocket fuel stocks and defense-related electronics made advances but the majority of these were limited.

All Big Three motors gained fractions as nervousness over a possible strike against one of them subsided. Studebaker-Packard was active, rising 1/4 to 11 American Motors lost a fraction in a spate of lively trading.

Thiokol, the rocket fuel stock, gained more than a point. Boeing, United Aircraft, Lockheed and North American Aviation were all up around a point.

Litton industries spurted more than 3. Texas Instruments rose more than a point apiece. Zenith also added a point.

Xerox, up 5 1/2 Wednesday, dropped about 2 points. IBM fell about 3 points.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 1.18 to 718.08. Prices on the American Stock Exchange were mixed in moderate trading.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were unchanged in light dealings.

Ohio University's Aid On Detection Is Asked

CLEVELAND (AP)—John Carroll University's seismic observatory has been asked by the federal government to help find a way to detect secret underground nuclear explosions.

The Rev. Henry F. Birkenhauer, observatory director, said a $23,000 research grant has been received from the Air Force to participate in Project Vela Uniform. He said JCU observatory was selected because of its experience with underground blasting in quarry and related industrial work.

Signup for winter barley producers will take place in a two-month September-November period.

The 1962 barley program, with certain malting varieties excepted, will be similar to the 1961 feed grain program for corn and grain sorghums—designed to bring supplies in balance and cut Government costs.

Spring barley signups probably will be in March-April at corn grain sorghum signup time. Those diverting barley acreage to an approved conserving use will receive payments which will serve to stabilize their income level.

FOR WINTER barley, approximately half of the diversion payment will be available at signup time, and the balance after compliance is checked in 1962. The 1962 national average support level for barley will not be less than for 1961.

About the first of September, County ASCS offices will mail producers information concerning base acreages and yields (established on the basis of 1949-60 average acreage and production) and payment rates per acre.

Steele said that the minimum diversion under the barley program will be 20 percent of the farm base (1959-60 average acreage). Up to 20 acres may be diverted if this is more than 20 percent of the base. The maximum diversion will be (a) 40 per cent of the farm base or (b) 20 acres plus 20 percent of the base. In no case can the diversion be more than the base.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet decision to resume nuclear testing—which makes no sense at all from the viewpoint of world opinion—is the extreme example of Russian terror tactics based on naked power.

1. It shows contempt for what the rest of mankind thinks.
2. It comes at a time when Premier Khrushchev has created a crisis on Berlin and is like a savage nudge to the West that Russia means business.

3. The announcement that this gives Soviet scientists a chance to test super-super bombs—equal to 100 million tons of TNT and far greater than any bomb the West possesses—is sheer, brutal, terror technique.

Even the circumstances under which the decision was announced Wednesday—while American and Russian negotiators were meeting in Geneva to discuss a test ban—makes this Russian move contemptuous of world opinion.

Three years ago the United States and Russia stopped testing, began negotiations to put a permanent ban on it. Wednesday the two sides had held their 338th meeting and, as before, with absolutely no progress.

There had been increasing pressure in this country, inside and outside Congress, for President Kennedy to order a resumption of American testing on the grounds that the negotiations for a ban were hopeless.

If the Russians had waited a week or so more, maybe the United States would have resumed. Then Moscow could have had a propaganda field-day, blaming the United States as the enemy of mankind.

And Russia then could have announced that it, too, would resume testing but only in self-defense because the United States had done so.

Instead—just as 25 neutral nations were pouring representatives into Belgrade for a meeting starting Friday—Moscow made its announcement which shocked capitals around the world.

Yet, for years it had been assumed that Russia and the Western powers were equally anxious to avoid any action which might have had a bad reaction among neutral peoples.

Khrushchev's decision Wednesday shows this assumption is a fallacy and that Russia is relying on its own power and its own interests alone to dictate its policy.

Even Khrushchev's decision is a contradiction of what he himself had said.

Last June Sen. Harry M. Jackson, Washington Democrat, said testimony before Congress by American military leaders had convinced the Joint Congressional ed from Columbus to the Grattage farm near Tarlton. Mr. West will teach this year at Logan Elm School.

Committee on Atomic Energy that from a military view testing should be resumed.

At the same time U.S. authorities were picking up information that Russian military men and scientists were becoming increasingly eager to resume tests. But June 20, at a Kremlin meeting, Khrushchev said:

"Some American leaders urge (the United States) to resume nuclear weapons tests if the Soviet Union does not accept the Western powers' demands (for a test ban). We must warn these gentlemen:

"No sooner the United States resumes nuclear explosions than the Soviet Union (immediately) will start testing its nuclear weapons . . ."

But Wednesday Moscow didn't even make the pretense that this country had resumed testing. Instead, the Soviet announcement said: "It is an open secret that the United States is standing on the threshold of carrying out underground nuclear tests."

The evidence that Khrushchev decided to rely on power—and the threat of power—to make the West yield to him on Berlin came on Aug. 9 when he no longer talked of resuming nuclear tests only after the United States did.

On that date he said if prospects for peace did not improve soon he would order Soviet scientists to build a bomb "equal to 100 million tons of TNT" He said

Military Rites Set For Cleveland Officer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Full military services will be held Saturday for Lt. Raymond H. Koehlke, 29, who died Wednesday at Detwiler Hospital in Wauseon of injuries suffered in a traffic accident Sunday. He and another Ohio National Guard officer died as a result of the crash on U.S. 20 near Ohio 108 involving an Army jeep, a military truck and an automobile.

Lt. Norman Dietrich, 25, of North Olmsted died a few hours after his jeep caught fire. The accident happened as the two, part of a military convoy, were returning from two weeks' training at Camp Grayling, Mich.

And while they were talking, or shortly afterwards, Moscow announced it would resume its nuclear tests.

Brutal Soviet Style

Berlin, like Hungary, has proved again that the Soviet style of colonialism is infinitely more brutal than the most flagrant examples of exploitation by Western nations.

The flow of refugees out of impoverished East Germany, which could only be stemmed by an ugly display of naked force, might mark the turning point in the West's battle to show the true face of Soviet Russia to the world. Berlin gives dramatic perspective to what it is really like to be a "friend" of the Soviet Union.

Now is the time to answer the question: Why do the satellite nations, which are rich in resources and talented, industrious people, still lag far behind the West and even Russia in factory and farm output?

The answer is simple. To be a friend of Russia is to be milked dry year after year.

The milking began after World War II when Russia carted off nearly $25 billion worth of capital equipment. At first brashly but now more subtly, the Kremlin has steadily overcharged satellite lands for its exports and underpaid them for its exports and underpaid them thinly - veiled theft was estimated at $2.4 billion - enforced foreign aid for Moscovs benefit.

Probably no colonial power in history has matched the squeeze the greedy Soviet Union has applied to its unhappy neighbors.

Fond Memories Left Behind

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—They were two women alone in a big old home that held long memories for both.

As they reached the front door, the daughter, a stout comfortable woman so deep in middle age her face bore no resentment of it, turned to the other.

"I know it's hard for you to leave, Mama," she said. "But Jim and I just couldn't stand the thought of you living any longer all by yourself in this old house."

"We'd never be able to forgive ourselves if anything happened to you."

"You'll be happier with us, Truly you will. Jim loves you as much as he did his own mother."

The white-haired old lady smiled. She reached out a frail, blue-veined hand and patted her daughter comfortingly.

"I realize it's for the best, Evelyn," said. "Why don't you go on out and join Jim in the car? I'd like to take one more last look around just to be sure everything is right."

"That is such a nice young couple that's moving in. I wouldn't want them to find anything not in place."

Her daughter sighed and said:

"All right, Mama. I understand. But don't be long. We have a long way to drive."

After she had left, the old lady turned to say goodbye alone and in her own way to the home she had entered as a bride nearly 60 years before.

A hint of dusk darkened the soft summer air outdoors. But the old lady made no move to switch on the lights. The feeling of gathering twilight suited her mood.

The old lady wanted to go one by one through every room, but she felt it would be unfair to keep her daughter and son-in-law waiting. But there were three rooms she had to say farewell to.

She paused briefly in the huge, high-ceilinged living room where the family had been warmed by hundreds of long winter evening fires.

Then she went out to the kitchen, where she had as a bride learned to cook on a wood-burning stove, and later bathed the children in bathtubs on the floor.

Still dry-eyed, she rested a moment with one hand on the worn walnut staircase before mounting to her bedroom. She stood silently by a great brightly gleaming old brass bedstead, the center of her life.

Here all her six children had been delivered. Here her first-born son, his eyes wide in wonder had been strangled by diphtheria. Here she had brought her husband his last glass of water and he had died, still holding her hand.

The remembering tears came then into the old lady's eyes. She bent and patted pillows. Then she suddenly knelt and kissed the bedspread.

"Goodbye," she whispered. Outside Jim honked the car horn—not too impatiently.

"You know we were lucky to find a young couple willing to rent a museum like your old home," he told his wife. "But they're fond of antiques and they liked all the pieces except one."

"What was that?" asked Evelyn.

"That old brass bedstead," said Jim.

"What do they plan to do with it?"

"Junk it," said Jim.

The old lady came out the door, carefully locked it, then walked down the front steps like a soldier smiling at a firing squad.

"I'm ready at last," she said. "Let's be on our way. Maybe we can still get home before it's too dark."

Time Is Precious

It is difficult for the human mind to think politically and historically in terms of minutes and seconds. We are accustomed to think in terms of decades and centuries.

When the present war started in 1914, nobody could have believed that it would last until 1961. But it has done just that and all the world is changed.

Perhaps we are in another Hundred Years War and somehow we must adjust our minds to that and go about our business expecting short intervals of shooting death.

But nowadays it is necessary to think in seconds and minutes. For instance, a SAC alert might take two minutes; 10 minutes would be regarded as very dangerous. And there are no minutes to lose because where radar watches, enemy planes and missiles are to be seen and who knows what orders the enemy planes have?

Call me a war - monger, but I know what I have seen. Our air force, at any rate, is prepared; it is ready and alert. But are we ready and alert?

Every day I receive letters calling me a war - monger because I insist upon warning our people of a danger which so hangs over our heads that American planes fly in the air on 24 hours duty. They would not be up there guarding us if it were not essential. It does not matter what politicians and diplomats say; airmen and airmen are in readiness with no minutes to lose or to spare.

It is a rainy day and the airmen sit about as they must do all the time. The Klaxon blows and out they come in seconds and the big planes are ready to go up into the air immediately. Is this peace of fear? Is this readiness or drills? The politicians will not say and they have the last word, but no one engaged in this preparedness and has any doubt as to what his job is. Any minute, he might get the word.

Every day I get letters telling me that "it is better to be a Red than dead." Is life so worth-while that one could sell himself into slavery just to be alive? Perhaps for some, life is very valuable and they would rather be Red than dead. What a wonderful slogan the Communists have devised. What an appeal such a slogan has to the animalistic instinct of self-preservation.

But has not civilization brought us to a higher level? Do we not ask what is worth - while and what is a noble ideal? Perhaps it is so awful to be dead that one would rather be a Red but those who ride the B-52's want to live, too. Only they want to live in freedom.

There I saw them stand in the rain in front of their aircraft, loving their ship as men love a home, telling me how they have worked together over the years, in war and in what is euphemistically called peace. Their hours are 24 a day and seven days a week and even when they go to bed they must be ready momentarily to answer the call of the Klaxon. And among them there are really no generals and no privates for up in the air men are in teams and each man must make the team an unbreakable unit. For one weak link can bring them all down and forever.

I am not saying where I was or what I saw - I only say that I came away with a sense of greater security because the real safety in this war is communications and in that field we excel. We can touch a button and all the world becomes alive in reply. And as one sees and hears, he wonders at those who still believe that the defense of Berlin is unnecessary and that we can ignore the imminence of war.

What we have, they probably have and what we know, they probably know. So it will be a matter of time, of no seconds to lose, of no minutes to throw away. The

School Aid Bill Put on Shelf

WASHINGTON (AP)—A powerful coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats yesterday voted to prevent House consideration of the administration's federal aid to education bill.

The move, which came quickly after the House met at noon, apparently ended chances of getting through at this session the principle the administration badly wanted to establish—federal money for the construction of public school facilities.

Two other parts of the package, aid to schools overcrowded by children of federal workers, and extension of a student loan program, are likely to be salvaged and passed later. Many members, both Republican and Democratic, favor these programs while bitterly opposing public school construction.

4 New Spacecraft Are Put on Order

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A U. S. space agency official says four more Ranger spacecraft have been ordered for close-up television exploration of the moon.

Dr. Robert C. Seamans Jr., associate administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said Tuesday that addition of the four $20-million craft will hike the total program to nine spacecraft. Cal Tech's jet propulsion laboratory builds them.

The first of the Rangers was launched Aug. 23. Seamans said that the acceleration of the Ranger program is generally designed to land an American on the moon by 1970.

Idle Pay Claims Drop

Why? He seemed well at bedtime.

He's suffering from croup — an air passage suddenly closes when ever air gushes in. Fluttering vocal cords sound a clipped - short, creak-like bark.

Croup strikes mainly pre-school toddlers whose tiny air passages easily stop up. As the windpipe grows, croup disappears.

Nose and throat infections sometimes spread down the passage, swell tissue around the vocal cords and trigger life - threatening croup. Fever soars as Baby's condition sinks. This is an emergency! Rush Baby to the hospital at once!

Croupy spasm — spasmodic croup — strikes without warning on cool nights. Rarely serious, spasmodic croup looks frightening.

Baby sits up, terrified, grasping his throat. He struggles to keep from suffocating while lips and fingernails turn blue.

His chest wall sucks in as each breath stops short. He strains every neck muscle and opens his nostrils wide to draw in every last bit of air.

Beneath cold, clammy skin,

Baby's pulse races as fear drives him to struggle for breath.

Of course, mild croup won't disturb him. He'll sleep peacefully while you toss and turn worrying about his cough.

Croupy babies need instant steam. Turn on the hot shower and sit in the bathroom with Baby on his tummy across your lap. Tilt him slightly head - down so that the moistened mucus can pour out, clearing his windpipe.

Phone the doctor at once. He may prescribe a half - teaspoon of ipecac to help bring up the mucus and stop this spasmodic croup. Then Baby will drift right back to dreamland.

Mild sedatives help prevent spasmodic croup. So do giant vaporizers! Croupy spasms start only in cool bedrooms.

Baby isn't a fresh-air fiend. He will rest better when his bedroom's warm and moist.

And so will you!

There is a mountain of onyx worth $3 million at Meramec Caverns, Stanton, Mo.

This latest upsurge in the price of gold coincides with a drop in U.S. exports, after their strong advance in the earlier months of 1961 had helped bring the outgo of dollars from this country closer in line with the inflow of dollars, although there is still a deficit.

Attractiveness of gold for investors also is coming at a time when U.S. government spending is rising, bringing with it an increase in the prospective U.S. Treasury deficit.

All of this doesn't threaten the value of the dollar now. But it makes for some nervousness lest it might give the dollar some trouble in the future.

Still unsolved is the long-range problem of balancing our outflow of dollars for imports, foreign aid, travel, and overseas investment with the inflow of dollars from exports, services and earnings on investments.

Right now, however, the rise in gold prices in London to the highest point since late winter is attributed to European problems rather than American ones.

First was a British financial crisis which weakened the pound sterling, caused a flight of investment money from London and led to austerity measures by the British government.

Next came the Berlin crisis. This is reported to be causing some holders of West German investments, both here and abroad, to be turning in their funds for gold—just in case.

Since early July the price of gold on the London market—after about five months of stability—has gone up 10% cents an ounce. This week it reached $35.16 3/4.

That price is high enough to make it profitable to buy gold from the U.S. Treasury and ship it to London for sale on the open market.

But New York bankers haven't reported any such move of consequence by the foreign national banks that are entitled to buy from the Treasury.

Another story current at the time was that the old general signed any paper that was put before him. An attendant discovered the oily paper in which his sandwich was wrapped in an ante-room of the Chancellery one morning. "Get rid of that paper fast," ordered his superior, "or old Hindenberg is likely to totter in and sign it!"

A CONTRIBUTING CAUSE to Hitler's rise in Germany in the early 30's was, of course, the increasing fogginess and senility of the octogenarian President, General Hindenberg. William Shirer reports that the first time he saw Nazi storm troopers parade in Berlin, Hindenberg remarked vaguely, "I didn't know we had taken so many Russian prisoners."

Brutal Soviet Style

Berlin, like Hungary, has proved again that the Soviet style of colonialism is infinitely more brutal than the most flagrant examples of exploitation by Western nations.

The flow of refugees out of impoverished East Germany, which could only be stemmed by an ugly display of naked force, might mark the turning point in the West's battle to show the true face of Soviet Russia to the world. Berlin gives a dramatic perspective to what it is really like to be a "friend" of the Soviet Union.

Now is the time to answer the question: Why do the satellite nations, which are rich in resources and talented, industrious people, still lag far behind the West and

Fond Memories Left Behind

NEW YORK (AP)—They were two women alone in a big old home that held long memories for both.

As they reached the front door, the daughter, a stout comfortable woman so deep in middle age her face bore no resentment of it, turned to the other

"I know it's hard for you to leave, Mama," she said. "But Jim and I just couldn't stand the thought of you living any longer all by yourself in this old house."

"We'd never be able to forgive ourselves if anything happened to you."

"You'll be happier with us. Truly you will. Jim loves you as much as he did his own mother."

The white-haired old lady smiled. She reached out a frail, blue-veined hand and patted her daughter comfortingly.

"I realize it's for the best, Evelyn," said. "Why don't you go on out and join Jim in the car? I'd like to take one more last look around just to be sure everything is right."

"That is such a nice young couple that's moving in. I wouldn't want them to find anything not in place."

Her daughter sighed and said:

Time Is Precious

It is difficult for the human mind to think politically and historically in terms of minutes and seconds. We are accustomed to think in terms of decades and centuries.

When the present war started in 1914, nobody could have believed that it would last until 1961. But it has done just that and all the world is changed.

Perhaps we are in another Hundred Years War and somehow we must adjust our minds to that and go about our business expecting short intervals of shooting death.

But nowadays it is necessary to think in seconds and minutes. For instance, a SAC alert might take two minutes; 10 minutes would be even Russia in factory and farm output?

The answer is simple. To be a friend of Russia is to be milked dry year after year.

The milking began after World War II when Russia carted off nearly $25 billion worth of capital equipment. At first brashly but now more subtly, the Kremlin has steadily overcharged satellite lands for its exports and underpaid them for its exports and underpaid them thinly - veiled theft was estimated at $2.4 billion — enforced foreign aid for Moscovs benefit.

Probably no colonial power in history has matched the squeeze the greedy Soviet Union has applied to its unhappy neighbors.

Here all her six children had been delivered. Here her first-born son, his eyes wide in wonder had been strangled by diphtheria. Here she had brought her husband his last glass of water and he had died, still holding her hand.

The remembering tears came then into the old lady's eyes. She bent and patted pillows. Then she suddenly knelt and kissed the bedspread.

"Goodby," she whispered.

Outside Jim honked the car horn—not too impatiently.

"You know we were lucky to find a young couple willing to rent a museum like your old home," he told his wife. "But they're fond of antiques and they liked all the pieces except one."

"What was that?" asked Evelyn.

"That old brass bedstead," said Jim.

"What do they plan to do with it?"

"Junk it," said Jim.

The old lady came out the door, carefully looked it, then walked down the front steps like a soldier smiling at a firing squad.

"I'm ready at last," she said. "Let's be on our way. Maybe we can still get home before it's too dark."

School Aid Bill Put on Shelf

WASHINGTON (AP)—A powerful coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats yesterday voted to prevent House consideration of the administration's federal aid to education bill.

The move, which came quickly after the House met at noon, apparently ended chances of getting through at this session the principle the administration badly wanted to establish—federal money for the construction of public school facilities.

Two other parts of the package, aid to schools overcrowded by children of federal workers, and extension of a student loan program, are likely to be salvaged and passed later. Many members, both Republican and Democratic, favor these programs while bitterly opposing public school construction.

4 New Spacecraft Are Put on Order

PASADENA, Calif (AP) — A U. S. space agency official says four more Ranger spacecraft have been ordered for close-up television exploration of the moon.

Dr. Robert C. Seaman Jr., associate administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said Tuesday that addition of the four $20-million craft will hike the total program to nine spacecraft. Cal Tech's jet propulsion laboratory builds them.

The first of the Rangers was launched Aug. 23. Seamans said that the acceleration of the Ranger program is generally designed to land an American on the moon by 1970.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Always a First Time!

DEAR ABBY: What does a girl do when she finds out that a boy for whom she cares a great deal has betrayed her confidence by broadcasting to all his friends things that should have been kept secret?

BETRAYED
DEAR BETRAYED: There is nothing you can do about it now. But you can profit by your own sad experience and never again

Youth Class Stages Meeting

The Subteeners Sunday School Class of the Circleville Gospel Center conducted its monthly meeting in the recreation room of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. George, Northridge Road. Mrs. George is the class teacher.

The class vice president, Dean Glitt, opened the meeting with prayer. Reports were given by Rita Grooms and Brenda Fausnaugh.

Sharon Crabtree presented the class scrapbook to members. Joyce McRoberts, class secretary, recorded the minutes of the meeting.

The group was led in the class song "Into My Heart" and the 23rd psalm by Mrs. George. The meeting closed with prayer by members of the group.

Linda Garrett directed games. The prize was won by Teresa Allen.

The group exchanged box lunches by drawing numbers for refreshments. Grace was given by members of the group.

Present were: Teresa Allen, Brenda Fausnaugh, Susan and Connie Swackhammer, Deloris and Brenda Azbell, Sharon Crabtree, Barbara Come, Debbie Smith, Rita Grooms, Joyce McRoberts, Diana Glitt, Linda Garrett and Dean Glitt of Ashville.

During the evening a birthday cake with a lighted candle was presented to Debbie Smith, honoring her birthday.

The next meeting will be in the home of Linda Garrett, Dunkle Road the fourth Friday in September.

give a boy anything to "broadcast" about.

DEAR ABBY: While I am writing this, my 22-year-old daughter is stretched out on the lawn chair in her bikini bathing suit with her sun glasses and movie magazines, and she will be there all day. She spends every Saturday and Sunday that way. She is the laziest, most self-centered, inconsiderate person I have ever known. She has a job which pays well, but she never offers to pay one cent toward her room and board. She is up to her neck in debt because she bought herself a car and dresses like a millionaire's daughter. She has never lifted a finger to make her own bed or rinse out a pair of stockings. She talks to her father and me like we were dogs. I never know who she runs around with because she never brings her friends home. What does a mother do with a monster like this?

HER MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Who raised this monster?

DEAR ABBY: I read about the grandmother who was so upset because she had to be bothered by her grandchildren over the weekend. I wish she could know how my heart would sing to see my dear little grandchildren trooping into my kitchen, leaving fingermarks on my refrigerator, dropping jam and chewing gum on my clean floor and making joyful noises because they are glad to be alive.

My son and his wife have left with their six children to live in a foreign country. I will probably never see them again. Here I am, left alone to enjoy my clean floor, spotless curtains and quiet home, but with that endless longing for "the touch of a vanished hand, and the sound of a voice that is still."

GRANDMOTHER

CONFIDENTIAL TO DOUBLE DILEMMA: He obviously doesn't know what time it is. Give him a watch!

"Are things rough?" Let Abby help you solve your problem. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and send a Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Stork Shower Held Honoring Mrs. Pontious

Mrs. Jack Pontious, the former Jeanie Edgington, was honored Saturday at a Stork shower given by Miss Barbara Sieverts, 503 N. Pickaway St.

Games were played and prizes won by Misses Alice Dawson and Linda Wardell.

Guests were: Misses Sue Barnes, Deena Musselman, Rita Cook, Alice Dawson, Barbara Barnhart, Linda Wardell, Diane Johnson, Joan Vaughan, Mrs. Lloyd Fisher, Mrs. Eliza Edgington, Mrs. John O'Hara, Mrs. Vern L. Pontious, Mrs. William Fitzpatrick and Mrs. F.W. Sieverts.

Gifts were sent by Misses Sally Montgomery, Phillis McCoard and Carolyn McFarland.

Meeting Postponed

The Pickaway County Garden Club has postponed tomorrow's meeting until September 8. It will be held at 8 p. m. in the Presbyterian Church.

Speaker for the evening will be Dr. Raymond Baby who will speak on "Mounds".

Hostesses will be Mrs. Richard Heckert, chairman, Mrs. Donald Archer, Mrs. Schubert Measamer, Mrs. Robert Burton, Mrs. Helen Windmiller, Miss Betty McCoy and Mrs. Jacques Sweeney.

Model Rooms Display New Textures, Colors

By ELEANOR ROSS

Color and texture play a stellar role in the new fashions, just as they do in the new furniture and decor of the recently unveiled model room displays.

While many such model rooms are sometimes designed more as "conversation pieces" than as practical guides for the amateur decorator, some settings do have practical application.

Striped Velvet

One show goes all out to achieve its striking results with an effective use of color, smartly dramatizing a clever use of fabric. In this connection, velvet makes an explosive re-entry, not in monotonous but in bold stripes.

Cotton velvet ribbon striped in silver, hot pink, flame and mauve with alternate bands of brown and butterscotch is used for a bedspread and matching wall panel. We can see this handsome striped velvet used in a variety of ways and settings, if handled with discretion. Too much of it would tend to dominate a room.

Golden Room

Gold in all its subtle gradations appears frequently in this model room display and is nicely handled with orange and mustard tones and some attractive moss green shades.

Color is also used with excellent effect in a sunken living room. A window wall is done in a surprising fabric — cotton batiste in rib bon stripes of reds, pinks and orange tones. A sectional sofa, upholstered in marigold damask, rather pales against this colorful wall.

One of the most novel settings is a dining room that glows with the rich, deep tones of autumn. The furniture, light and graceful, yet solidly constructed, is of pecan with butternut wood veneers. Exotic zebra wood, myrtle and English elm burl are all used with decorative effect on the dining room furniture.

Practical and Pretty

Here again, an interesting wall treatment has been worked out that lends itself to the homemaker in search of practical ideas. Roman shades in gold and moss tones in an abstract floral pattern that smartly simulates a stained glass effect look extremely handsome in their role of concealing a wall of windows.

What is so good is that the shades may be raised in individual panels to admit as much light as is deemed desirable. As for texture, the decorators have made good use of flecked and grasscloth wallpapers, as well as nubby tweeds and handsome felts.

The Teay's Valley Little League ended a successful summer baseball program with a Round-up pot-luck supper Friday evening in the Ashville Community Shelter House. Over 100 players, managers and sponsors and members of their families attended.

Following the supper the boys and manager of the championship team, sponsored by Morrison's Market, were presented a trophy. The presentation of the award was made by Art Deal Jr. Members of the team are: Fritz Krieger, Gary Lambert, Wayne Everett, Rick Pickering, Ronnie Lambert, George Tye, Don Scarberry, Jim Younkin, Dale Lambert, Garland Ison, Jerry Hines, John Roesse, Tom Pickering and Bill Hines. They were managed by Ralph McCain, assisted by Gary McCain and Jim Pickering.

The team had a record of nine wins and one loss in the league. Their only defeat by Team 1, sponsored by Messick's Royal Blue Market.

Ed Pritchard presided at the short business meeting in the absence of Felix Dore, president of the organization. The following officers were elected for next year's league: Lester Nogg'e, president; Dale Schiff, vice president; and Mrs. Les Cook, secretary and treasurer.

The following business places sponsored teams: Messick's Royal Blue Market, Morrison's Market, Gloyd's Sohio, Ed Pritchard Insurance, Dick's Hardware and Ashville I.G.A.

The Ashville Community Club met at the Shelter House Monday evening with Warren Bastian presiding.

The short business meeting consisted of a discussion on decorating the village during the Christmas season. Ed Dodd, representative of Spectacular Exhibits Co. in Columbus was on hand to explain and discuss displays and their prices. He also had several displays with him. The club voted to spend $500 this year and each year additional funds will be supplied so more can be added to the display. A committee of Virgil Walden, Dale Schiff, Gene Tosca and Charles Morrison was appointed to purchase the displays.

The Ashville All Stars, made up of members of the Teay's Valley Little League, have started in the semifinals of the Chillicothe Little League Tournament, made up of twenty teams from central and southern Ohio.

Approximately six teams remain in the playoff of the double elimination tournament. Ashville, as of Sunday, has four wins and one loss, which put them in the loser's bracket. The winner of the loser's bracket will meet the winner of the winner's bracket to determine the championship. The only team to defeat them thus far was Franklin Furness by a score of 6 to 5 in ten innings. The Ashville team has defeated Yellowbud, Thurman, Chillicothe Manors and the Chillicothe Merchants.

Louisiana's School Plan Ruled Illegal

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A three-judge federal court has struck down Louisiana's school closing law—which permitted school districts to vote in favor of abandonment of public schools faced with desegregation orders.

The court, in its ruling, also held in Louisiana's grant-in-aid program to the school closing law, but did not rule the grants illegal.

"This is not the moment in history for a state to experiment with ignorance," said the opinion by Judge John Minor Wisdom of the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals and U.S. District Judges J. Skelly Wright and Herbert W. Christenberry.

"When it does, it must expect close scrutiny of the experiment." The court ruled that the "local option" (Act 2 of a special 1961 session of the Louisiana Legislature), violated the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment on two counts.

1. "It is a transparent artifice to deprive the (Negro) plaintiffs of their constitutional right to attend desegregated public schools," and
2. Since the state provides public schools in other parishes (counties), closing the schools in St. Helena would discriminate against the children in that parish, regardless of race.

Columbus To Get New Motor Hotel

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ground-breaking ceremonies for a proposed $6-7 million luxury motor hotel in the heart of downtown Columbus is set for next February.

Plans call for the 21-story, curtain-wall type modern structure to be completed in March 1963 on ground owned by the State Employees Retirement System board at 12 N. Third St. The plot is presently occupied by the Virginia Hotel and the old Columbus Citizen building, both of which will be razed.

The hotel will be built and operated by Management Directors, Inc., a Columbus corporation created for this purpose. The hotel will have 414 rooms and suites, facilities under roof for 425 automobiles, and extensive convention and banquet rooms.

GARDEN

Compiled and Edited by
Mrs. Elizabeth Jones

Garden Gossip

The general public is invited (not to view the gardens) but to attend the third annual swimming pageant at our pond at 5 p. m. Labor Day.

Speaking of the gardens we'll be "beholdin' to you if you close your eyes when passing through the garden on your way to the pond.

If you're in earnest about coming to the water pageant, drive east on Route 56 to the first cross roads past the blinker light. Turn right and our farm is where the road divides.

Skipper Hanson is pageant director this year. The performers are mostly Whisler kids who have been swimming in the pond this year.

A BASKET supper will be held after the pageant. Better bring a cushion for easier sitting.

Pickaway garden club members helping with the Ohio State Fair Garden were Mrs. Robert Burton, Mrs. Richard Heckert, Mrs. David Craven, Mrs. Doyle Painter, Mrs. Charles Thompson and Mrs. Schubert Measamer.

A State Fair garden is a momentous project. It takes a lot of planning, a lot of borrowing, a lot of transportation and a lot of elbow grease.

I was told that the committee had so much plunder in the Burton car that Clara had to call a halt. The back end was sagging so another car was loaded with some of the garden ingredients.

The garden included a pool and a Victorian statue of Venus at the Bath.

Polly Measamer said at the last minute they received word that garden dimensions had been increased. This threw a scare into equal to the emergency.

SUNDAY Pickaway garden club members were displaying arrangements in the niches at the State Fair were Mrs. Guy Campbell, Mrs. Turney Pontius, Mrs. Luther Bower and myself.

On Tuesday Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. Richard Heckert, Mrs. James Moffitt and Mrs. Measamer were responsible for Niche arrangements.

William Coey, 698 E. Mound St., was lamenting the fact that he had to dig up his front yard to find a non-existent leak in his gas main. He thought he would be obliged to sod the bare spot.

We are dedicating the article on September lawn care to him. It is not too late to sow grass seed.

We visited in the Wayne Stallman home at Gahana recently. The place is called Brierfield.

The spacious grounds had been landscaped and planted with woodland material that Mr. Stallman had transplanted. His sassafras trees were particularly thick and shapely. These, he says, are favorites of his.

I DO not think Webster agrees with me, but when I say garden I mean a special enclosure. I do not mean the yard or grounds.

Be that as it may, just outside the Stallman screened-in side porch were two flower gardens. . . a small enclosed garden that one entered through a white gate. The first garden sort of narrowed into the second garden.

One garden had a good many Baptisia plants, Baptisia, or false indigo, has excellent foliage and interesting seedpods. It is a fine all summer plant.

One of the gardens had passion vine in profusion. Mr. Stallman showed us how to make a table arrangement of floating passion vine flowers. He says that if these flowers are floated they will last four or five days. Otherwise, the blossoms fade in one day.

Tony Stallman, Bexley, has just arrived home from a vacation in Switzerland. He saw many beautiful gardens there.

Stallman said the Swiss did beautiful things with flower boxes. At one railroad station there were big geranium trees planted in pots along the platform.

THIS is a good year for tuberous begonias. And now is a good time for them. They are blooming their best. They are not the easiest flower in the world to grow. Be proud of yourself if you have good specimens.

This is the worst year for Black-spot on roses. Everybody has it. It's very heartening when fine gardeners acknowledge that they too have their moment of tough luck. Corilla Pontius says her gladioli are a disappointment to her this summer.

My favorite dahlia, Gerrie Hoek, is blooming to perfection in Mrs. Pontius's garden. It's a small pink dahlia known as the water lily dahlia. And it does look like a water lily.

Dahlias are often just grown for their flower. But Gerrie Hoek makes a beautiful plant when in bloom. Incidentally, it has nice long stems.

Frances Hunter was displaying a beautiful bouquet at the store in Whisler Saturday. There were asters, dahlias and snapdragons in it. Frances said Mrs. Emmitt Toole had brought it to her. Those are the Toole specialties — asters, dahlias and snapdragons.

James Scott, Northridge Road, Herb Southward, E. Main St., and Mrs. Luther Jacob, East Ave., all have tempted fate by leaving their glad corms in the ground during winter. The results were gratifying. Mrs. Jacob said only her white ones survived.

WOULDN'T it be an amazing discovery if we found out that in Pickaway County we didn't have to dig our glads.

The Wayne Luckharts, Saltcreek Valley, lost their little mimosa tree this year. Mrs. Luckhart says she has the usual annuals blooming now. Marigolds, zinnias and asters.

In a talk with G. H. Armstrong, the glad fancier, learned that this had been an exceptionally poor year for gladioli growers. "Too wet and too cold," said Mr. Armstrong.

The Armstrongs did not put out as many glads as usual. However, they have given away 83 bouquets so far. If you have ever been the recipient of one of these bouquets you know how lovely they are.

We asked Armstrong if he ever wintered glads over in his garden. He said frequently they miss corms in their fall digging. But

Thompsons Have Excellence Habit For Garden Effort

It's a rare person of whom you can say, "He has the habit of excellence".

And only once in a blue moon can you say it of a couple. But the Charlie Thompsons, Collins Court, fall into this category of persons with the habit of excellence.

And this habit even spills over into their gardening endeavors. Their grounds are divided into the front area, the service area and the private or patio area.

Charlie Thompson, a handy man with the clippers, has clipped his yeas to form a "T" for Thompson. The yeas grow on either side of the entrance. This is probably Circleville's only example of topiary art.

IN THE front area are two beautiful European mountain ash trees with clusters of orange berries. This is a somewhat difficult ornamental tree and very difficult when properly grown.

A white fence separates the front from the service and patio areas. In the service area the Thompsons have their vegetables and rows of cutting flowers.

The vegetables include eggplants. Alice Thompson said their first eggplants were skeletonized almost overnight by eggplant fleas. Charlie was after the pests the next morning with his spray. In the meantime he left town and Mrs. Thompson invested in other eggplants which she sprayed as soon as she transplanted.

On Charlie's return he was delighted to see the thriving eggplants and announced that he had indeed used a wonderful spray.

The Thompsons have grown almost all their evergreens from babyhood. Charlie keeps them symmetrical with his ever ready clippers. He also keeps his evergreen hedges trimmed to perfection.

The evergreens in this particular hedge were bought when they were large specimens. Alice said they cost far less than usual because they were lopsided and not perfect.

CHARLIE and a neighbor went to Tipp City for the evergreens and by evening of the same day they had all been trimmed and planted.

Outside the family - room door the Thompsons have enormous plant boxes. They are a couple of feet wide, at least 30 inches high and ten or 12 feet long.

The planters were the reason for my visit to the Thompsons. They are bordered with caladiums, white and green and red leafed ones. Blossoming material includes asters of all colors which are at their peak, snapdragons, and portulaca. At the far end they have tucked away a tomato plant and some chives. They've even found space for a canna or two.

Alice grew all the asters herself. She purchased a punch-and-grow planter. The directions said generally the garden is plowed before the glads come up. This year was an exception and many glads put in their appearance after having wintered over. But they were not strong and sturdy.

Armstrong believes the white glads are more often winter hardy than other colors.

all but 18 plants were to be discarded. Instead she transplanted the extra seedlings.

Actually she grew dozens of fine plants from her one punch-and-grow box. In spring there are tulips and daffodils in the boxes.

There is a fine adolescent sycamore here too. It has grown amazingly. Just five years ago it was a single whip.

WE ASKED Mrs. Thompson how they had such good luck with their trees. She believes it may be because they have placed a drainage tile at each tree. In terribly hot dry weather they allow the hose to run in the tiles.

In a little spot near the house, Jennie, the Thompsons' younger daughter, has a tiny garden of her own. She plants wild flowers that she likes. She has fun, too, constructing pools and bridges. It's her very own, in which to work out any ideas she may have. Everything is in miniature of course.

In the patio area where the family sometimes has meals, there considerable seclusion afforded by the evergreen hedge. Here there are no flowers, but the Thompsons have experimented with foliage to give a color effect.

A very striking tree is white birch with its multiple trunks. There is also a purple leafed plum and a Chinese rose tree.

The Japanese maple which ordinarily provides color is not feeling well this year and the Thompsons are going to call in the experts.

The purple leafed beech stubbornly refuses to grow. It was planted several seasons ago on account of its color.

It just goes to show that everybody has horticultural troubles now and then, even a couple with the habit of excellence!

Rare Plant Is Obtainable

If you are as interested as the garden editor in Mrs. Frank LeRoy's unusual and striking plant, Lobelia Carinalis, you will no doubt be interested in where it may be obtained.

Plants may be purchased at Wayside gardens, Mentor, Ohio and the George Park Seed Co., in Greenwood, S. C., lists cardinal lobelia seeds.

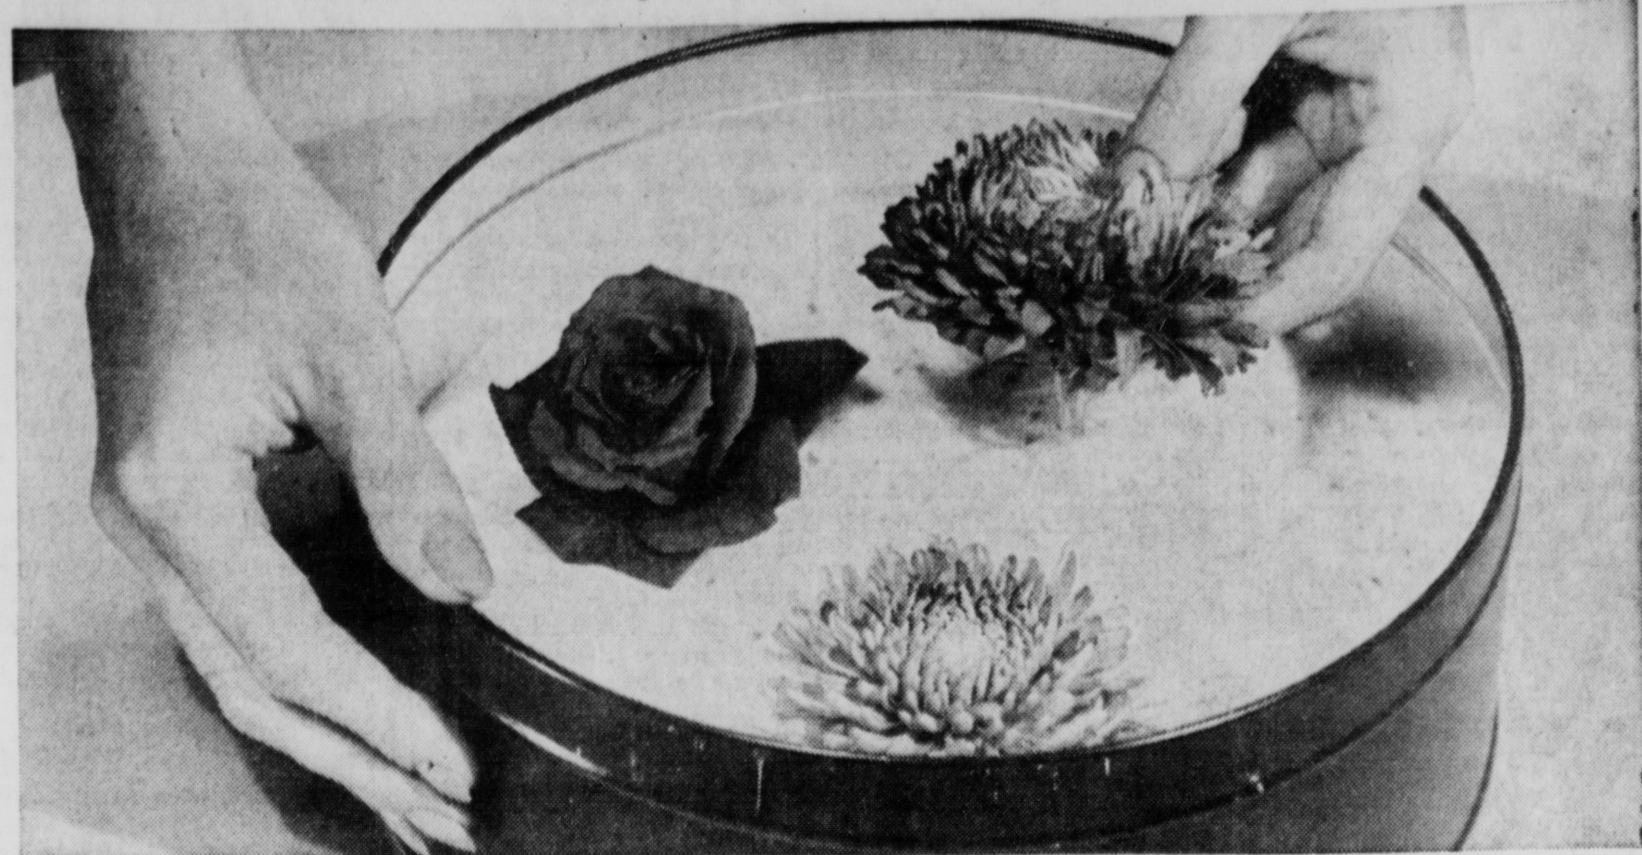

Wayside Gardens says of it, "One of the showiest plants we have." They are ideal for water-side or for moist, partially-shaded borders.

If planted in a border prepare the soil by digging in plenty of well decayed manure. They are best grown in large colonies and should be planted about six inches apart. They must have plenty of water in dry weather.

THIS should be an interesting addition to the July - August perennial garden.

Mrs. LeRoy lives in Stoutsville.

If You Like Winter Bouquets Treat Flowers in Silica Gel

RELIABLE METHOD — Drying of flowers by the Flower-Dri method begins as shown, using a container such as a cake box. Then flowers are completely covered with the Flower-Dri, the container sealed with tape, and left for about a week before careful removal of the powder, which is reusable. "They look just like fresh flowers", is the comment most frequently heard.

Everybody's been asking about them so they're not touching.

2. Sprinkle Flower-Dri over flowers until completely covered, gently working it up and around them so contact is made on all parts of the flowers.

3. Cover cake tin or other container with tight top and seal it with freezer or masking tape. Put it away for one week — in a place where the contents will not be disturbed.

4. To remove flowers, pour off mixture slowly until they are uncovered. Lift out gently and blow away any particles that adhere — or, you may dust carefully with an artist's brush.

5. To make stems, insert a length of medium weight florists' wire into the short flower stem and fasten it with a small piece of masking or freezer tape.

6. Cover the wire by spiral-wrapping it with green floral tape, and the flower is ready for arranging and for many uses in decorating.

Previous methods of drying include burying in borax, borax and cornmeal, sand, and hanging in a dry place.

I understand that flowers dried in the old established ways do not compare with those dried in silica gel.

ITS manufacturers say:

A unique way of drying flowers, to keep them as fresh looking and colorful as when first picked, employs silica gel, an industrial chemical used in baby powders and for the preservation of dry freshness in foods and pharmaceutical preparations, among other applications.

The method developed takes advantage of the affinity of the silica gel for moisture.

In about a week of contact with the chemical, moisture is almost completely removed from the flowers, leaving their appearance unchanged and preserving them for months.

A special blend of silica gel has been prepared for this use, known as "Flower-Dri". It is an a mixture of blue and white particles. When it becomes saturated with moisture from the flowers, it turns entirely white and is then reactivated by baking in an oven, until the blue returns.

With reactivation, the Flower-Dri retains its usefulness indefinitely.

DEPARTMENT stores, florists, garden supply and chain stores including supermarkets, will be retail outlets for the product.

Instructions for use of Flower-Dri give the full details of the method:

1. Pour Flower-Dri into a cake tin or other sealable container to a depth of 2 inches. Insert short-stemmed flowers, face up. Space

Garden Gossip

The general public is invited (not to view the gardens) but to attend the third annual swimming pageant at our pond at 5 p. m. Labor Day.

Speaking of the gardens we'll be "beholdin'" to you if you close your eyes when passing through the garden on your way to the pond.

If you're in earnest about coming to the water pageant, drive east on Route 56 to the first cross roads past the blinker light. Turn right and our farm is where the road divides.

Skipper Hanson is pageant director this year. The performers are mostly Whisler kids who have been swimming in the pond this year.

A BASKET supper will be held after the pageant. Better bring a cushion for easier sitting.

Pickaway garden club members helping with the Ohio State Fair Garden were Mrs. Robert Burton, Mrs. Richard Heckert, Mrs. David Craven, Mrs. Doyle Painter, Mrs. Charles Thompson and Mrs. Schubert Measamer.

A State Fair garden is a momentous project. It takes a lot of planning, a lot of borrowing, a lot of transportation and a lot of elbow grease.

I was told that the committee had so much plunder in the Burton car that Clara had to call a halt. The back end was sagging so another car was loaded with some of the garden ingredients.

The garden included a pool and a Victorian statue of Venus at the Bath.

Polly Measamer said at the last minute they received word that garden dimensions had been increased. This threw a scare into equal to the emergency.

SUNDAY Pickaway garden club members who were displaying arrangements in the niches at the State Fair were Mrs. Guy Campbell, Mrs. Turney Pontius, Mrs. Luther Bower and myself.

On Tuesday Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. Richard Heckert, Mrs. James Moffitt and Mrs. Measamer were responsible for Niche arrangements.

William Cosby, 698 E. Mound St., was lamenting the fact that he had to dig up his front yard to find a non-existent leak in his gas main. He thought he would be obliged to sod the bare spot.

We are dedicating the article on September lawn care to him. It is not too late to sow grass seed.

We visited in the Wayne Stallman home at Gahana recently. The place is called Briarfield.

The spacious grounds had been landscaped and planted with woodland material that Mr. Stallman had transplanted. His sassafras trees were particularly thick and shapely. These, he says, are favorites of his.

I DO not think Webster agrees with me, but when I say garden I mean a special enclosure. I do not mean the yard or grounds.

Be that as it may, just outside the Stallman screened-in side porch were two flower gardens. . . a small enclosed garden that one entered through a white gate. The first garden sort of narrowed into the second garden.

One garden had a good many Baptisia plants, Baptisia, or false indigo, has excellent foliage and interesting seedpods. It is a fine all summer plant.

One of the gardens had passion vine in profusion. Mr. Stallman showed us how to make a table arrangement of floating passion vine flowers. He says that if these flowers are floated they will last four or five days. Otherwise, the blossoms fade in one day.

Tony Stallman, Bexley, has just arrived home from a vacation in Switzerland. He saw many beautiful gardens there.

Stallman said the Swiss did beautiful things with flower boxes. At one railroad station there were big geranium trees planted in pots along the platform.

THIS is a good year for tuberous begonias. And now is a good time for them. They are blooming their best. They are not the easiest flower in the world to grow. Be proud of yourself if you have good specimens.

This is the worst year for Black-spot on roses. Everybody has it. It's very heartening when fine gardeners acknowledge that they too have their moment of tough luck. Corilla Pontius says her gladioli are a disappointment to her this summer.

My favorite dahlia, Gerrie Hoek, is blooming to perfection in Mrs. Pontius's garden. It's a small pink dahlia known as the water lily dahlia. And it does look like a water lily.

Dahlias are often just grown for their flower. But Gerrie Hoek makes a beautiful plant when in bloom. Incidentally, it has nice long stems.

Frances Hunter was displaying a beautiful bouquet at the store in Whisler Saturday. There were asters, dahlias and snapdragons in it. Frances said Mrs. Emmitt Toole had brought it to her. Those are the Toole specialties — asters, dahlias and snapdragons.

James Scott, Northridge Road, Herb Southward, E. Main St., and Mrs. Luther Jacob, East Ave., all have tempted fate by leaving their glad corms in the ground during winter. The results were gratifying. Mrs. Jacob said only her white ones survived.

WOULDN'T it be an amazing discovery if we found out that in Pickaway County we didn't have to dig our glads.

The Wayne Luckharts, Saltcreek Valley, lost their little mimosa tree this year. Mrs. Luckhart says she has the usual annuals blooming now. Marigolds, zinnias and asters.

In a talk with G. H. Armstrong, the glad fancier, learned that this had been an exceptionally poor year for gladioli growers. "Too wet and too cold," said Mr. Armstrong.

The Armstrongs did not put out as many glads as usual. However, they have given away 83 bouquets so far. If you have ever been the recipient of one of these bouquets you know how lovely they are.

We asked Armstrong if he ever wintered glads over in his garden. He said frequently they miss corms in their fall digging. But

Thompsons Have Excellence Habit For Garden Effort

It's a rare person of whom you can say, "He has the habit of excellence".

And only once in a blue moon can you say it of a couple. But the Charlie Thompsons, Collins Court, fall into this category of persons with the habit of excellence.

And this habit even spills over into their gardening endeavors. Their grounds are divided into the front area, the service area and the private or patio area.

Charlie Thompson, a handy man with the clippers, has clipped his yeas to form a "T" for Thompson. The yeas grow on either side of the entrance. This is probably Circleville's only example of topiary art.

IN THE front area are two beautiful European mountain ash trees with clusters of orange berries. This is a somewhat difficult ornamental tree and very lovely when properly grown.

A white fence separates the front from the service and patio areas. In the service area the Thompsons have their vegetables and rows of cutting flowers.

The vegetables include eggplants. Alice Thompson said their first eggplants were skeletonized almost overnight by eggplant fleas. Charlie was after the pests the next morning with his spray. In the meantime he left town and Mrs. Thompson invested in other eggplants which she sprayed as soon as she transplanted.

On Charlie's return he was delighted to see the thriving eggplants and announced that he had indeed used a wonderful spray.

The Thompsons have grown almost all their evergreens from babyhood. Charlie keeps them symmetrical with his ever ready clippers. He also keeps his evergreen hedges trimmed to perfection.

The evergreens in this particular hedge were bought when they were large specimens. Alice said they cost far less than usual because they were lopsided and not perfect.

CHARLIE and a neighbor went to Tipp City for the evergreens and by evening of the same day they had all been trimmed and planted.

Outside the family - room door the Thompsons have enormous plant boxes. They are a couple of feet wide, at least 30 inches high and ten or 12 feet long.

The planters were the reason for my visit to the Thompsons. They are bordered with caladiums, white and green and red leafed ones. Blossoming material includes asters of all colors which are at their peak, snapdragons, and portulaca. At the far end they have tucked away a tomato plant and some chives. They've even found space for a canna or two.

Alice grew all the asters herself. She purchased a punch-and-grow planter. The directions said generally the garden is plowed before the glads come up. This year was an exception and many glads put in their appearance after having wintered over. But they were not strong and sturdy.

Armstrong believes the white glads are more often winter hardy than other colors.

all but 18 plants were to be discarded. Instead she transplanted the extra seedlings.

Actually she grew dozens of fine plants from her one punch-and-grow box. In spring there are tulips and daffodils in the boxes.

There is a fine adolescent sycamore here too. It has grown amazingly. Just five years ago it was a single whip.

WE ASKED Mrs. Thompson how they had such good luck with their trees. She believes it may be because they have placed a drainage tile at each tree. In terribly hot dry weather they allow the hose to run in the tiles.

In a little spot near the house, Jennie, the Thompsons' younger daughter, has a tiny garden of her own. She plants wild flowers that she likes. She has fun, too, constructing pools and bridges. It's her very own, in which to work out any ideas she may have. Everything is in miniature of course.

In the patio area where the family sometimes has meals, there considerable seclusion afforded by the evergreen hedge. Here there are no flowers, but the Thompsons have experimented with foliage to give a color effect.

A very striking tree is white birch with its multiple trunks. There is also a purple leafed plum and a Chinese rose tree.

The Japanese maple which ordinarily provides color is not feeling well this year and the Thompsons are going to call in the experts.

The purple leafed beech stubbornly refuses to grow. It was planted several seasons ago on account of its color.

It just goes to show that everybody has horticultural troubles now and then, even a couple with the habit of excellence!

Rare Plant Is Obtainable

If you are as interested as the garden editor in Mrs. Frank LeRoy's unusual and striking plant, Lobelia Carinalis, you will no doubt be interested in where it may be obtained.

Plants may be purchased at Wayside gardens, Mentor, Ohio and the George Park Seed Co., in Greenwood, S. C., lists cardinal lobelia seeds.

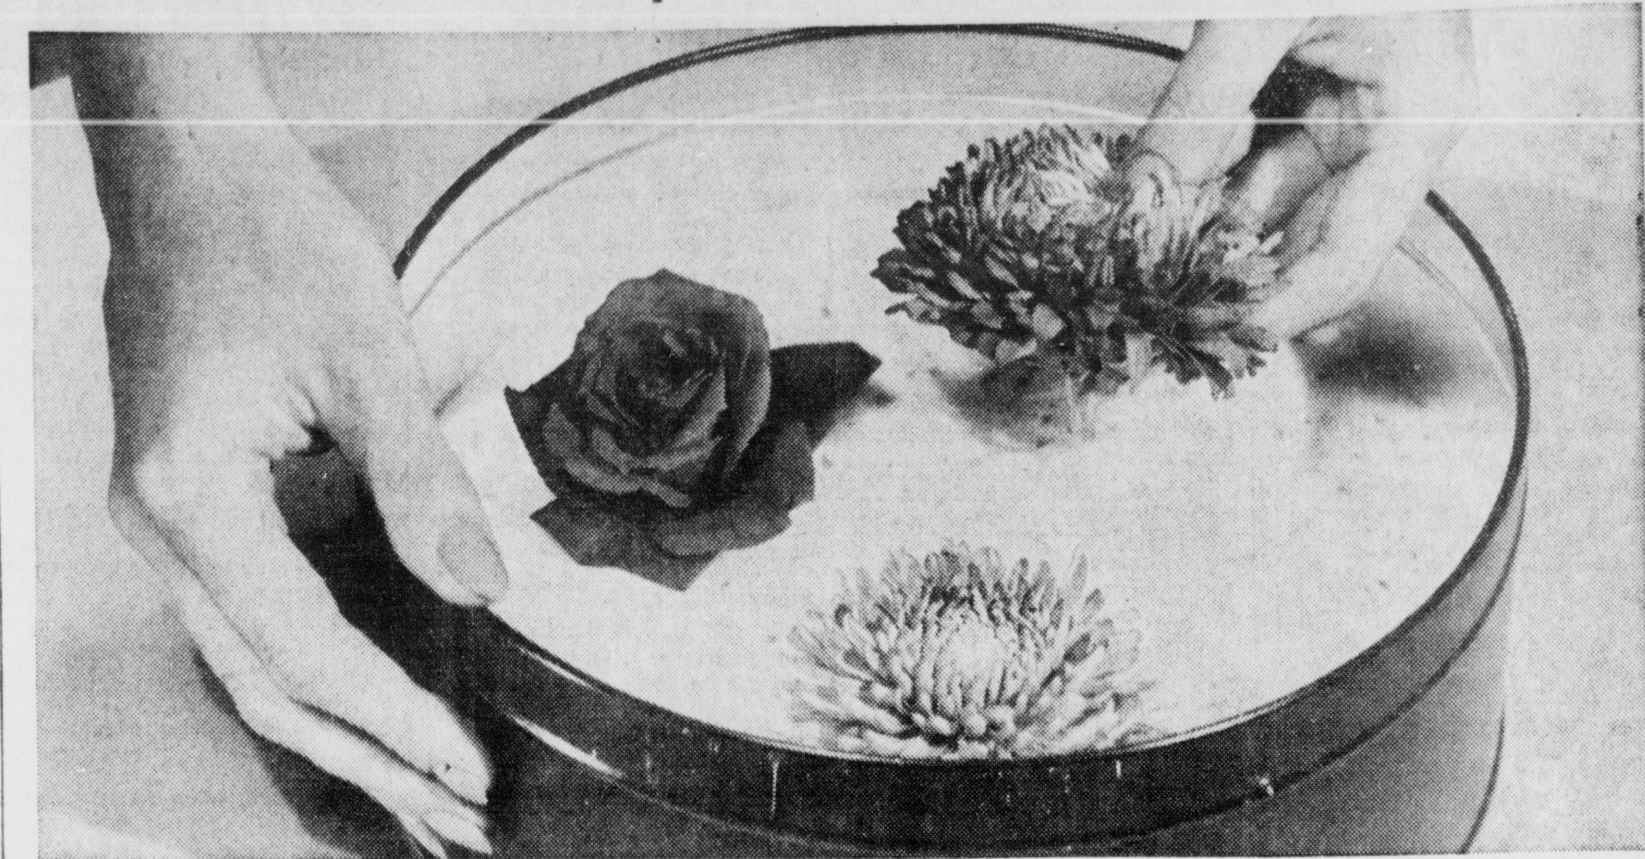

Wayside Gardens says of it, "One of the showiest plants we have." They are ideal for water-side or for moist, partially-shaded borders.

If planted in a border prepare the soil by digging in plenty of well decayed manure. They are best grown in large colonies and should be planted about six inches apart. They must have plenty of water in dry weather.

THIS should be an interesting addition to the July - August perennial garden.

Mrs. LeRoy lives in Stoutsville.

If You Like Winter Bouquets Treat Flowers in Silica Gel

RELIABLE METHOD — Drying of flowers by the Flower-Dri method begins as shown, using a container such as a cake box. Then flowers are completely covered with the Flower-Dri, the container sealed with tape, and left for about a week before careful removal of the powder, which is reusable. "They look just like fresh flowers", is the comment most frequently heard.

Everybody's been asking about silica gel.

It's a new substance for drying flowers. Judging from the article in the August "American Home", silica gel is revolutionary.

Flowers dried in silica gel are very like fresh flowers in appearance so if you're an arranger and aren't looking for silica gel you're missing out.

I understand that flowers dried in the old established ways do not compare with those dried in silica gel.

ITS manufacturers say:

A unique way of drying flowers, to keep them as fresh looking and colorful as when first picked, employs silica gel, an industrial chemical used in baby powders and for the preservation of dry fresh-ness in foods and pharmaceutical preparations, among other applications.

The method developed takes advantage of the affinity of the silica gel for moisture.

In about a week of contact with the chemical, moisture is almost completely removed from the flowers, leaving their appearance unchanged and preserving them for months.

A special blend of silica gel has been prepared for this use, known as "Flower-Dri". It is an a mixture of blue and white particles. When it becomes saturated with moisture from the flowers, it turns entirely white and is then reactivated by baking in an oven, until the blue returns.

With reactivation, the Flower-Dri retains its usefulness indefinitely.

DEPARTMENT stores, florists, garden supply and chain stores including supermarkets, will be retail outlets for the product.

Instructions for use of Flower-Dri give the full details of the method:

1. Pour Flower-Dri into a cake tin or other sealable container to a depth of 2 inches. Insert short-stemmed flowers, face up. Space them so they're not touching.

2. Sprinkle Flower-Dri over flowers until completely covered, gently working it up and around them so contact is made on all parts of the flowers.

3. Cover cake tin or other container with tight top and seal it with freezer or masking tape. Put it away for one week — in a place where the contents will not be disturbed.

4. To remove flowers, pour off mixture slowly until they are uncovered. Lift out gently and blow away any particles that adhere — or, you may dust carefully with an artist's brush.

5. To make stems, insert a length of medium weight florists' wire into the short flower stem and fasten it with a small piece of masking or freezer tape.

6. Cover the wire by spiral-wrapping it with green floral tape, and the flower is ready for arranging and for many uses in decorating.

Previous methods of drying include burying in borax, borax and cornmeal, sand, and hanging in a dry place.

'Miss U.S.A.' Keeps
Eye on Physicist

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The mysterious "Mr. X" whom Miss U. S. A., JoAnn Odum, said was her "certain someone" in Dayton is Donald Warnock, a civilian physicist at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base.

Warnock, 28, is living at the YMCA in Dayton.

Miss Odum, a 19-year-old Marshall University freshman who was crowned Miss U. S. A. Saturday, said, "I think a great deal of him." However, she wouldn't confide her sweetheart's name.

One of her Huntington relatives let out the secret and Warnock confirmed that he is "Mr. X" and that the feeling expressed by Miss U. S. A. is mutual.

"She's a pretty wonderful girl," Warnock said.

The first time the couple saw each other was two years ago during the Huntington centennial celebration.

"I was Li'l Abner and she was a Ziegfeld Follies girl," Warnock said.

He referred to parts they played in the celebration.

Warnock, a 1960 graduate of Marshall College, said his romance with Miss U. S. A. is in the "dating" stage.

Warnock said JoAnn has won numerous beauty contests and was in Florida twice this summer because of the m. The green-eyed, 5-foot-7 beauty will represent the United States in November in the Miss World contest in London.

Little Red Box Isn't A Mail Box

MIDDLETOWN (AP)—Two Italians found out the hard way here Tuesday that "U. S. mail" on a mail box doesn't mean it's only for mail bent sent within the United States. And they also found those little red boxes on utility poles aren't mail boxes.

Orione Daro, 34, and Ventura Renato, 42, who speak very little English, are here visiting the offices of Armco International. They had a letter they wanted to send to Italy. The post office was closed and they saw the outside mail box said "U. S. mail." They figured that was only for mail within the United States.

Then they saw that little red box so they started trying to mail their letter in it. They couldn't do it, of course, so they started on down the street.

Within minutes here came fire trucks, a police cruiser and an emergency car with sirens blaring. Daro and Renato went back to see what it was all about.

By sign language, arm waving and some pidgin Italian, Police Sgt. Douglas Barrett finally explained to the men that they had pulled a fire alarm box and that mail would go to Italy even if the mail box says "U. S. mail."

Neff Shuts Out Davidson Crew In A Loop Tilt

Paul Neff avenged Stonerock's Monday 2-0 loss to Wilke's Meats in the Columbus A Softball League with a whitewash job of his own, blanking Harley-Davidson 6-0 on three hits last night in a loop tilt at Southview Park.

After being touched for a two-out single by Anders in the first inning, Neff hurried in hitless form until the fifth, when Beard led off with a one-bagger. Robbins singled for the loser's only other hit in the sixth.

Stonerock's opened scoring early, as Jack McGuire was hit by a pitch, moved to second on a passed ball and slammed across the plate on Harold Gulick's single. Bob Placier walked leading off the Stonerock second and scored on McGuire's single.

In the third, Gulick and Bob Glick started the frame with back-to-back one-baggers. Both scored as Placier singled an out later.

SPEEDER DAVIS singled in the fourth, but was stranded on third as Gulick grounded out. Robbins was replaced on the mound for Harley Davidson by Stone as McGuire singled to spark a two-tally TV uprising in the fifth.

Gulick opened the sixth with the game's only extra-base safety — a double — but was thrown out at the plate attempting to score on Placier's second single.

Neff whiffed seven and allowed no walks in picking up the decision. Robbins struck out none and walked three in his stint. Stone issued two free tickets.

The TV outfit is scheduled to resume play tonight for the grand championship of the Greenfield Invitational Softball Tournament in the Highland County city.

Rookie Fullback Eyes Browns Spot

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Preston Powell, rookie fullback, is one step closer to making the Cleveland Browns, but he was separated from a close pal in the process.

Powell and halfback Jamie Caleb had been roommates at Grambling College and here with the Browns. Caleb and tackle Jim Prestel, both second-year men with the Browns, were traded Wednesday to the Minnesota Vikings for two future draft choices.

It was Caleb who strongly urged the Browns to draft the 6-foot-2, 220-pound Powell. When Caleb hurt his hip in the Browns' opening exhibition loss to Detroit, Powell got his chance. He'll get a chance to feather his nest in the exhibition game against the Pittsburgh Steelers in Akron Saturday night.

Martin Entry Wins At Scioto; Locals Race at Ohio Fair

Jane R. Counsel, a flashy seven-year-old piloted by Bob Seabrook, chalked up a 2:04 last night at Scioto Downs to win the $1,000 Handicap Pace by a neck over Golden Gift.

Owned by Wayne Martin, 425 Northridge Rd., the bay mare came from fifth at the three-quarter pole to record her fifth victory of the year. The clocking was a new record for Jane R. Counsel.

Virgie's First, owned by the Van Camp Stables and handled by Jack Betts, clipped to a third place showing in the first heat of the $1,200 21 Pace at the Ohio State Fair yesterday.

In the second half, Virgie faltered to finish eighth in a ten-pacer field. I'm It, another Van Camp entry also driven by Betts, placed seventh in the first half of the 3-year-old Director of Agriculture Pace.

Neil Helfrich's Washington C.H.-based Irish Blackstone, with Forrest Short at the reins, registered third and sixth place showings in the same event.

Booster Heads Slate Meeting at Logan Elm
Members of the Logan Elm Booster Club Board of Directors will hold an organizational meeting 8 p. m. Tuesday in the Logan Elm high school building.
Plans for the coming football season and the opening of school will be discussed. A program for the year will be reviewed.

Harlan Dean Cops Big Trot

Co-Owner Now Fights Hambletonian Move

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP) — Frosting to a record week can be added today for Del Miller, veteran harness racing trainer-driver, if Hambletonian Society directors vote to keep the 3-year-old trotting classic at the Du Quoin State Fair Grounds.

Miller, 48-year-old baron of Meadow Lands Farm in Pennsylvania, is part owner of Harlan Dean with Max Hempt and Royal Cleveland.

Harlan Dean, driven by Miller's long-time assistant, Jimmy Arthur, Wednesday won the Hambletonian with a record performance of successive mile heats in 1:58 25 and 1:59.

Miller today will head a behind-the-scenes fight to keep an eastern bloc of Hambletonian directors from voting to move the premier grand circuit event from Du Quoin to Vernon Downs in upstate New York.

The Hambletonian has been held at the Du Quoin State Fair Grounds since 1957, when it was shifted from Goshen, N.Y.

Meanwhile, Miller and his partners pocketed a $7,064 first prize on Harlan Dean's sensational Hambletonian victory. The brown son of Harlan had won only once in eight starts this year and collected a mere $7,676 in earnings.

His first heat of 1:58 2-5 topped the 3-year-old trotting mark, 1:58 3-5, set by Elaine Rodney in the Kentucky Futurity at Lexington last fall and matched by Caleb in the recent Review Futurity in Springfield, Ill.

His second heat of 1:59 also shattered the former Hambletonian record of 1:59 3-5 established last year by Quick Song and Hoot Frost.

The combined heat times of 3:57 2-5 was a record for trotters of any age, surpassing the 3:57 4 set in heats of 1:58 4 and 1:59 by 5-year-old Nibble Hanover at Old Orchard Beach, Maine.

Bantam Named Fighter of Month

NEW YORK (AP)—Eder Jofre, world bantamweight champion who won the same designation for July, again was named "Fighter of the Month" by Ring Magazine in its August ratings released today.

Jofre retained his unbeaten status by knocking out Ramon Arias in Caracas in successfully defending his crown.

The runnerup spot goes to NBA light heavyweight champion Harold Johnson for his victory in a title match Tuesday night over Eddie Cotton in Seattle.

Bobby Dean No-Hits Wellston in Chillicothe LL Tournament

Bobby Dean had a pitcher's dream come true in grand fashion last night in the Chillicothe Little League Tournament.

On the mound for the Circleville LL all stars, Dean fired a no-hitter complete with a dozen strikeouts at Wellston, winning 7-1.

Dean got plenty of assistance early in the game. Ted Herron singled with one away in the first inning. Rick Congrove and Jim Moorehead worked walks from

Band Preview Set for Friday

Gridders, Musicians, Fathers To Perform

The Circleville Band Mothers annual Preview is scheduled to start at 8 p. m. tomorrow at the CHS football field.

A variety of entertainment is on the agenda. The evening will include appearances by the CHS band in sparkling new uniforms, a football clinic conducted by the local gridders and coaches and some humorous activity by a group of band dads and fathers of the varsity cheerleaders.

Activity will start with a flag raising ceremony by Circleville Boy Scouts. This will be followed by introduction of cheerleaders and football players.

On down the line, the "Dad Cheerleaders" will step forth to lead a few yells. The CHS Band, at a record high of 95 members, will perform and so will the "Band Fathers" with skirts and all.

THE football clinic will be presented in two parts. Fans will see a rundown on all types of gridiron fundamentals and some of the procedures the players master for game preparation.

Band Mothers sponsor the Preview each year. Proceeds are used to purchase new uniforms and equipment for the band.

A special highlight tomorrow night will be the bandsmen in their new uniforms, the first complete new suits here since 1952.

Hayburn and Joe Leatherwood send two runners flying home with a long double to right.

In the third Herron scored after

Honest Time Cops State Fair Pace

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It took Honest Time two races to find racing room in the Director of Agriculture Pace for 3-year-olds at the Ohio State Fair Wednesday, but when he did the Coshocton pacer's owner was $5,602 richer.

That was Honest Time's share in winning the $24,900 event.

Boxed in, Honest Time ran third in the second heat, finishing third behind High Test and Actor Abbe. In the finale, it was a neck and neck duel with High Test but driver Eddie Cobb got Honest Time up on the last stride. The winning time was 2:02 4-5.

singling to center as Congrove came through with a one-bagger. Dean, experiencing some control trouble, got by the top of the fourth despite issuing three walks to fill the bases. He fanned Pratt with three on and two away.

IN CIRCLEVILLE half of the inning, Steve Dade led off with a single and Dean boosted his own advantage to 4-0 with an RBI one-bagger through the infield.

Dean's wildness cost him a shut-out in the fifth. Alexander reached first on an error to open. Boggs walked and, after Lovender fanned Dean walked Hayburn. Wagner struck out as a pinch-hitter, but Purdue drew a walk to force home the loser's only tally.

UCLA football coach Bill Barnes was a versatile athlete at Tennessee. He played wingback as a sophomore, blocking back as a junior and end as a senior.

Circleville added three more in the fifth on errors, walks and Congrove's second safety. In all, Dean whiffed 12 while walking eight.

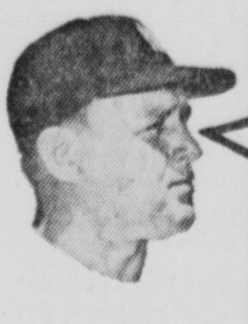

During the regular Little League season, Dean was the ace pitcher for the major loop BPOE squad.

Junior Sailing Teams Await 2 Final Races

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Only 3½ points separate the three front-running teams vying for the North American Junior Sailing Championship.

Marblehead, Mass., with 44 points, was still the leader with two races left to run today. Second was defending champion Vancouver, B.C.

In last place with 13 points for six races is Cowan Lake, Ohio.

Neff Shuts Out Davidson Crew In A Loop Tilt

Paul Neff avenged Stonerock's Monday 2-0 loss to Wilke's Meats in the Columbus A Softball League with a whitewash job of his own, blanking Harley-Davidson 6-0 on three hits last night in a loop tilt at Southview Park.

After being touched for a two-out singled by Anders in the first inning, Neff hurled in hitless form until the fifth, when Beard led off with a one-bagger. Robbins singled for the loser's only other hit in the sixth.

Stonerock's opened scoring early, as Jack McGuire was hit by a pitch, moved to second on a passed ball and slammed across the plate on Harold Gulick's single. Bob Placier walked leading off the Stonerock second and scored on McGuire's single.

In the third, Gulick and Bob Glick started the frame with back-to-back one-baggers. Both scored as Placier singled an out later.

SPEEDER DAVIS singled in the fourth, but was stranded on third as Gulick grounded out. Robbins was replaced on the mound for Harley Davidson by Stone as McGuire singled to spark a two-tally TV upswing in the fifth.

Gulick opened the sixth with the game's only extra-base safety — a double — but was thrown out at the plate attempting to score on Placier's second single.

Neff whiffed seven and allowed no walks in picking up the decision. Robbins struck out none and walked three in his stint. Stone issued two free tickets.

The TV outfit is scheduled to resume play tonight for the grand championship of the Greenfield Invitational Softball Tournament in the Highland County city.

Rookie Fullback Eyes Browns Spot

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Preston Powell, rookie fullback, is one step closer to making the Cleveland Browns, but he was separated from a close pal in the process.

Powell and halfback Jamie Caleb had been roommates at Grambling College and here with the Browns. Caleb and tackle Jim Prestel, both second-year men with the Browns, were traded Wednesday to the Minnesota Vikings for two future draft choices.

It was Caleb who strongly urged the Browns to draft the 6-foot-2, 220-pound Powell. When Caleb hurt his hip in the Browns' opening exhibition loss to Detroit, Powell got his chance. He'll get a chance to feather his nest in the exhibition game against the Pittsburgh Steelers in Akron Saturday night.

Harlan Dean Cops Big Trot

Co-Owner Now Fights Hambletonian Move

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP) — Frosting to a record week can be added today for Del Miller, veteran harness racing trainer-driver, if Hambletonian Society directors vote to keep the 3-year-old trotting classic at the Du Quoin State Fair Grounds.

Miller, 48-year-old baron of Meadow Lands Farm in Pennsylvania, is part owner of Harlan Dean with Max Hempt and Royal Cleveland.

Harlan Dean, driven by Miller's long-time assistant, Jimmy Arthur, Wednesday won the Hambletonian with a record performance of successive mile heats in 1:58 25 and 1:59.

Miller today will head a behind-the-scenes fight to keep an eastern bloc of Hambletonian directors from voting to move the premier grand circuit event from Du Quoin to Vernon Downs in upstate New York.

The Hambletonian has been held at the Du Quoin State Fair Grounds since 1957, when it was shifted from Goshen, N.Y.

Meanwhile, Miller and his partners pocketed a $77,364 first prize on Harlan Dean's sensational Hambletonian victory. The brown son of Harlan had won only once in eight starts this year and collected a mere $7,676 in earnings.

His first heat of 1:58 2-5 topped the 3-year-old trotting mark, 1:58 3-5, set by Elaine Rodney in the Kentucky Futurity at Lexington last fall and matched by Caleb in the recent Review Futurity in Springfield, Ill.

His second heat of 1:59 also shattered the former Hambletonian record of 1:59 3-5 established last year by Quick Song and Hoot Frost.

The combined heat times of 3:57 2-5 was a record for trotters of any age, surpassing the 3:57 3-4 set in heats of 1:58 3-4 and 1:59 by 5-year-old Nibble Hanover at Old Orchard Beach, Maine.

Bantam Named Fighter of Month

NEW YORK (AP)—Eder Jofre, world bantamweight champion who won the same designation for July, again was named "Fighter of the Month" by Ring Magazine in its August ratings released today.

Jofre retained his unbeaten status by knocking out Ramon Arias in Caracas in successfully defending his crown.

The runnerup spot goes to NBA light heavyweight champion Harold Johnson for his victory in a title match Tuesday night over Eddie Cotton in Seattle.

Bobby Dean No-Hits Wellston in Chillicothe LL Tournament

Bobby Dean had a pitcher's dream come true in grand fashion last night in the Chillicothe Little League Tournament.

On the mound for the Circleville LL all stars, Dean fired a no-hitter complete with a dozen strikeouts at Wellston, winning 7-1.

Dean got plenty of assistance early in the game. Ted Herron singled with one away in the first inning. Rick Congrove and Jim Moorehead worked walks from Hayburn and Joe Leatherwood sent two runners flying home with a long double to right.

In the third Herron scored after singling to center as Congrove came through with a one-bagger. Dean, experiencing some control trouble, got by the top of the fourth despite issuing three walks to fill the bases. He fanned Pratt with three on and two away.

Circleville added three more in the fifth on errors, walks and Congrove's second safety. In all, Dean whiffed 12 while walking eight.

During the regular Little League season, Dean was the ace pitcher for the major loop BPOE squad.

Honest Time Cops State Fair Pace

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It took Honest Time two races to find racing room in the Director of Agriculture Pace for 3-year-olds at the Ohio State Fair Wednesday, but when he did the Coshocton pacer's owner was $5,602 richer.

That was Honest Time's share in winning the $24,900 event.

Boxed in, Honest Time ran third in the second heat, finishing third behind High Test and Actor Abbe. In the finale, it was a neck and neck duel with High Test but driver Eddie Cobb got Honest Time up on the last stride. The winning time was 2:02 4-5.

IN CIRCLEVILLE half of the inning, Steve Dade led off with a single and Dean boosted his own advantage to 4-0 with an RBI one-bagger through the infield.

Dean's wildness cost him a shut-out in the fifth. Alexander reached first on an error to open. Boggs walked and, after Lovender fanned Dean walked Hayburn. Wagner struck out as a pinch-hitter, but Purdue drew a walk to force home the loser's only tally.

UCLA football coach Bill Barnes was a versatile athlete at Tennessee. He played wingback as a sophomore, blocking back as a junior and end as a senior.

Junior Sailing Teams Await 2 Final Races

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Only 3 1/2 points separate the three front-running teams vying for the North American Junior Sailing Championship.

Marblehead, Mass., with 40 3/4 points, was still the leader with two races left to run today. Second was defending champion Vancouver, B.C.

In last place with 13 points for six races is Cowan Lake, Ohio.

Band Preview Set for Friday

Gridders, Musicians, Fathers To Perform

The Circleville Band Mothers annual Preview is scheduled to start at 8 p. m. tomorrow at the CHS football field.

A variety of entertainment is on the agenda. The evening will include appearances by the CHS band in sparkling new uniforms, a football clinic conducted by the local gridders and coaches and some humorous activity by a group of band dads and fathers of the varsity cheerleaders.

Activity will start with a flag raising ceremony by Circleville Boy Scouts. This will be followed by introduction of cheerleaders and football players.

On down the line, the "Dad Cheerleaders" will step forth to lead a few yells. The CHS Band, at a record high of 95 members, will perform and so will the "Band Fathers" with their "kirts and all."

THE football clinic will be presented in two parts. Fans will see a rundown on all types of gridiron fundamentals and some of the procedures the players master for game preparation.

Band Mothers sponsor the Preview each year. Proceeds are used to purchase new uniforms and equipment for the band.

A special highlight tomorrow night will be the bandmen in their new uniforms, the first complete new suits here since 1952.

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS

Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned, the Fiscal Officer of the City of Circleville, Ohio, until 11:00 A. M., Eastern Standard Time, on the 8th day of September, 1961, at which time the bids will be publicly opened and read, for the purchase of bonds of the municipality in the aggregate amount of $13,186.69, authorized by Ordinance passed July 18, 1961.

Said bonds shall be dated the 1st day of September, 1961, shall be in the denomination of $1,000.00 each, except Bond No. 1 which is in the denomination of $1,186.69, and shall draw interest payable semi-annually on the 1st day of June and December of each year, beginning June 1, 1962, at the rate of 6 per cent per annum. Anyone desiring to do so may present a bid for said bonds based upon their bearing a different rate of interest, but not in excess of 6 per cent provided that where a fractional interest rate is bid, such fraction shall be one-quarter of one per cent or multiple thereof.

Said bonds mature as follows: $2,186.69 on the 1st day of December, 1963; $2,000.00 on the 1st day of December, 1964 and 1965; and $1,000.00 on the 1st day of December in each of the years 1966 to 1972, both inclusive.

Said bonds are issued in anticipation of the collection of special assessments for the purpose of improving Pontius Lane from the South line of lot 32 to Brink Drive and certain other designated streets by constructing curbs, gutters and storm sewers.

Said bonds are payable at the City Treasurer's Office, Circleville, Ohio, and are supported by limited taxes and special assessments.

Said bids will be promptly considered and the said bonds will be sold to the highest bidder offering the lowest interest rate at not less than par and accrued interest. The lowest interest rate will be determined by calculating the total interest to be paid maturity at the rate bid and adding therefrom the premium bid. If each of two or more bids is the highest bid offering the lowest interest rate, the bonds will be awarded on such one of said highest bids as is chosen by lot. All bids must be accompanied by a bond or certified check on a solvent bank (other than the bidder) payable to the municipality, in the amount of one per cent of the par amount of the bonds bid for, upon condition that if the bid is accepted, the bidder will receive and pay for such bond in accordance with the terms and provisions of this notice, or forfeit the same as liquidated damages in the event said condition is not fulfilled.

Bids shall be sealed and endorsed "Bid for $13,186.69 Circleville, Ohio, Street Improvement Bonds."

The proceedings for this issue have been taken under the supervision of Bricker, Evans, Barton, Eckler & Niehoff, Bond Attorneys, Columbus, Ohio, who upon approval of the bids will be furnished by the municipality to the successful bidder without expense. A complete transcript of proceedings and the printed bonds will be furnished by the municipality, together with usual closing papers and a certificate showing the lowest interest rate or the lowest bid, at the time of the delivery, to enjoin delivery or to contest the validity of the bonds or the power to issue them or the levy or collection of taxes or special assessments for their payment.

In the event the interest in said bonds should by act of Congress or otherwise become subject to Federal Income Taxes prior to delivery, the successful bidder may refuse to accept delivery and in such event his bond or certified check shall be returned without interest.

It is contemplated that the legislative authority of the municipality will meet at 8:00 p. m. on the 19th day of September, 1961, to consider said bids and make an order of sale. The bonds will be delivered at the office of the undersigned, or such other place as may be agreed on with the successful bidder; if outside of the limits of the municipality the bidder shall pay expense of delivery at that place. Before making tender of the bonds at the place of delivery the municipality shall give written notice to the successful bidder not later than the third day before the proposed tender, of the fact that the bonds, transcript, no litigation certificate and approval opinion will be available for delivery and giving the date and hour for the tender at the said place of delivery, provided however that nothing herein contained shall prevent the making of a mutually agreeable arrangement for the delivery of the bonds either at the place fixed for delivery or elsewhere.

If such notice has not been given or waived by the successful bidder and the bonds, transcript, no litigation certificate and approval opinion are not available for delivery to the successful bidder at such place of delivery on or before 12:00 Noon of the 30th calendar day after the day fixed for the tender of bids, and the successful bidder shall not be in default of any of his obligations, he shall have the right thereafter and so long as no such tender by the municipality shall yet have been made, to cancel the contract of purchase; such right to be exercised by delivering to the undersigned or to his office during business hours written notice of such cancellation. Such bidder shall thereupon be entitled to the return of the deposit which accompanied his bid and it shall be returned to him immediately.

The right is reserved to reject bids.

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS

Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned, the Fiscal Officer of the City of Circleville, herein referred to as the municipality, in the County of Pickaway, Ohio, at his office, 110 N. City Hall, Circleville, Ohio, until 11:00 A. M., Eastern Standard Time, on the 8th day of September, 1961, at which time the bids will be publicly opened and read, for the purchase of bonds of the municipality in the aggregate amount of $13,186.69, authorized by Ordinance passed July 18, 1961.

Said bonds shall be dated the 1st day of September, 1961, shall be in the denomination of $1,000.00 each, except bonds of $500.00, and shall bear interest of 4 percent per annum, payable semi-annually on the 1st day of June and the 1st day of December, beginning June 1, 1962, at the rate of 6 percent per annum. Anyone desiring to bid on the bonds should submit a bid in the form of a check or cash, payable to the order of the City of Circleville, Ohio, in the amount of $1,000.00, and shall draw interest payable semi-annually on the 1st day of June and the 1st day of December, beginning June 1, 1962, at the rate of 6 percent per annum. Anyone desiring to bid on the bonds should submit a bid in the form of a check or cash, payable to the order of the City of Circleville, Ohio, in the amount of $1,000.00, and shall draw interest payable semi-annually on the 1st day of June and the 1st day of December, beginning June 1, 1962, at the rate of 6 percent per annum.

Said bonds shall be payable at the City Treasurer's Office, Circleville, Ohio, and are supported by limited taxes and special assessments.

Said bids will be promptly considered, and said bonds will be sold to the highest bidder offering the lowest interest rate at not less than par and accrued interest. The lowest interest rate will be determined by calculating the total interest to stated maturity at the rate bid and deducting therefrom the premium, if any, on the bonds. The bid offering the lowest interest rate, the bonds will be awarded on such one city or more bids as is chosen by lot. All bids must be accompanied by a bond in the amount of one percent of the bid, payable to the order of the City of Circleville, Ohio, and shall be returned to the bidder upon condition that if the bid is accepted, the bidder will receive and pay for such bonds in accordance with the terms and provisions of this notice, or forfeit the same as liquidated damages in the event said condition is not fulfilled.

Bid shall be sealed and endorsed "Bids for $13,186.69, Circleville, Ohio, Street Bonds." The proceedings for this issue have been taken under the supervision of Brickley E. Evans, and by Nicholas Hoff, Bond Attorneys, Columbus, Ohio, whose approving opinion will be furnished by the municipality to the successful bidder without expense. A complete transcript of proceedings and the printed bond will be furnished by the municipality, together with usual closing papers and a certificate showing no litigation pending or threatened at the time of the delivery, to enjoin delivery or to contest the validity of the bonds or the power to issue them, or the levy or collection of taxes or special assessments for their payment.

In the event the interest on said bonds should be of Congress or otherwise become subject to Federal Income Taxes prior to delivery, the successful bidder may refuse to accept delivery and in such event his bond or certified check shall be returned without interest.

It is contemplated that the legislative authority of the municipality will meet at 8:00 p. m., on the 19th day of September, 1961, to consider said bids and make an award.

The bonds will be delivered at the office of the undersigned, or such other place as may be agreed on with the successful bidder, at the time and place of delivery of the bonds. Before making tender of the bonds at the place of delivery the municipality shall give written notice to the successful bidder not later than the third day before the proposed tender, of the fact that the bonds, transcript, no litigation certificate and approving opinion will be available for delivery and giving the date and hour for the tender at the said place of delivery, provided however that nothing herein contained shall prevent the making of a mutually agreeable arrangement for the delivery of the bonds either at the place fixed for delivery or elsewhere.

If such notice has not been given or waived by the successful bidder and the bonds, transcript, no-litigation certificate and approving opinion are not available for delivery at the place of delivery at such place of delivery on or before 12:00 Noon of the 30th calendar day after the day fixed for the receipt of bids, and the successful bidder shall not be in default of any of his obligations, he shall have the right thereafter and so long as no such tender by the municipality shall yet have been made, to cancel the contract of purchase; such right to be exercised by delivering to the undersigned or to his office during business hours written notice of such cancellation. Such bidder shall thereupon be entitled to the return of the deposit which accompanied his bid and it shall be returned to him immediately.

The right is reserved to reject bids.

Mysterious Needle Found in Abdomen

WATERLOO, N. Y. (AP)—Mrs. Geraldine Reeder, 47, of Brunswick, Ohio, left Taylor-Brown Memorial Hospital Tuesday with a souvenir—a two-inch long embroidery needle.

Surgeons had removed the needle from Mrs. Reeder's abdomen after she was stricken with severe pains. Mrs. Reeder was sure she hadn't swallowed the needle. Doctors said she may have sat on the needle or stepped on it, and that it subsequently worked its way into her abdomen.

Kennedy Calls For Parleys On A-Tests

sion to resume nuclear weapons testing is in utter disregard of the desire of mankind for a decrease in the arms race."

The statement also said the decision indicates "the complete hypocrisy of (Soviet) professions on general and complete disarmament."

The first word of the Moscow policy switch reached the President in a curious and inconclusive way. It was mentioned in a Soviet Tass news agency dispatch broadcast from Moscow to Central Russia early Wednesday afternoon Washington time. The broadcast was heard by monitors outside the Soviet Union and relayed to the State Department shortly after 4 p.m., officials later reported.

At 4 o'clock President Kennedy had started a news conference. In the course of the conference he was asked about the Geneva nuclear test negotiations. He said that Dean would stay there until the end of next week. Then he would return home and report on future prospects. After that, Kennedy said, he would make the "appropriate decision."

The news conference ended at 4:30 and Kennedy went back from room to the White House. Secretary of State Dean Rusk joined him there and reported on the Tass dispatch.

The dispatch, which was a commentary on Soviet military preparedness, referred to a "decision adopted by the Soviet government on carrying out experimental explosions of nuclear arms." It did not say what the decision was, though a resumption of testing was implied. Kennedy reportedly told Rusk to make the matter public. It was then given to newsmen at the State Department.

One critical question which was under immediate discussion in the high councils of the government here was why the Soviet government, knowing the propaganda cost, decided to take the step and to take it at this time.

A wide range of possible motivations was considered. One was that Soviet leaders have decided that they cannot get their way of persuasion and have determined to get it by force so that a friendly public opinion is no longer of primary concern to them.

Another possibility mentioned in the discussions within the government was that the Soviets decided they were behind the United States in nuclear weapons systems and the time had come for an all-out effort to catch up. In this connection they may foresee serious danger of war over Berlin.

2 County Entries Winners at Fair

Two Pickaway County entries in cattle shows this week at the Ohio State Fair have topped reserve champion awards.

Gary Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ferguson, Route 1, Ashville, received the Reserve Champion laurels with his short-horn entry in the Ohio State Junior Fair Division.

Gary's entry was sold to the Pavilion Restaurant of the Ohio Staters Hotel, Columbus.

The shorthorn was raised as an FFA project.

He won the same award at the Pickaway County Fair this year. Paul W. Teegardin and Sons, Ashville, returned with the Reserve Champion Shorthorn Bull award in the Open Show at the State Fair.

REV. HENRY A. WALTERS

Rev. Walters Takes Post at Presbyterian

The Rev. Henry A. Walters arrived in Circleville this week to assume the ministerial post at the First Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. and Mrs. Walters and their four children arrived here Monday and currently are busy establishing their residence in the Manse adjacent to the church. The new minister will deliver his first service Sunday.

Rev. Walters was born in Tacoma, Wash., according to him "at an early age." He grew up in Illinois and Wisconsin, attending Carroll College, Waukesha, Wis.

He received his Ph. B. at Carroll in 1935 and entered McCormick Seminary in Chicago in 1939. He was graduated from the seminary in 1942 with a B.D. degree.

PASTORATES served by Rev. Walters have been Kimberly, Wis., Ironwood, Mich., and Napoleon, O. The latter term of ministry was for 9½ years.

The new minister also served as a chaplain with the Combat Engineers during World War II.

Mrs. Walters spent her early years in Keokuk, Ia., and later went to Chicago where she was graduated from Moody Bible Institute in 1935. The children are Judith, 18; Rebecca, 14; Henry Jr., 12; and Deborah, 8.

A formal installation service here for Rev. Walters will be announced later.

Prior to entering the ministry, Rev. Walters was employed for a part of five years with the Waukesha Motor Co. of Waukesha. He is a member of Masonic Lodge 389 of Ironwood, Mich., and 32nd Degree, Toledo Valley, Haley Chapter of the York Rite and a member of the American Legion Post in Napoleon.

Rev. Walters succeeds the Rev. Donald Mitchell who resigned his post here to make his home on the west coast.

Red A-Test Move Linked To Berlin Fuss

nuclear weapon tests on living or-lined appeared clearly intended to shake the Western Allies into coming to a conference table more ready than they are now to accept the Soviet demands for a German peace treaty.

"The Soviet Union has worked out designs for creating a series of super-powerful nuclear bombs of 20, 30, 50 and 100 million tons of TNT," said the statement issued by the official Soviet news agency Tass.

Furthermore, the statement continued, Soviet scientists have developed powerful rockets to lift the giant bombs "to any point on the globe."

The rockets were described as similar to those which shot Soviet astronauts Gherman Titov and Yuri Gagarin on space flights around the globe.

The announcement of the super-super-bomb came as no surprise, however. Khrushchev on Aug. 9 said Soviet scientists had suggested they could build a bomb equal to 100 million tons of TNT and that he would give the signal for construction if prospects for peace did not improve.

U.S. military experts said then it would be comparatively easy to build such a bomb but not worthwhile from a military standpoint since present nuclear bombs were powerful enough to wipe out an entire city.

The announcement landed on the Soviet people like a storm bomb itself. Only lately have they been given information to let them know how seriously the West is reacting to Khrushchev's Berlin proposals. This announcement appeared likely to bring it home to them with a bang.

It told them: "The Soviet people, the Soviet government cannot but reckon with the fact that, like 20 years ago, ominous clouds of war are once again overhanging the approaches to our motherland, that West Germany and the present allies of German militarists are feverishly engaged in military preparations."

Ohio Redevelopment Coordinator Selected

WASHINGTON (AP)—Allen H. Pett of Sioux Falls, S.D., has been named field coordinator of the Area Redevelopment Administration (ARA) for Ohio. He has been the executive director of Industrial and Development Foundation, Inc., in Sioux Falls since 1957.

Pett will act as liaison man between the ARA and local communities seeking federal aid under the new program to promote economic development for depressed areas. The post pays about $10,500 a year.

Living Totem Pole

CLEVELAND (AP)—A firmly rooted totem pole stands on the front lawn of George Roether's home.

The colorfully painted pole is carved from the trunk of a live maple tree. The tree's roots threatened Roether's sewer lines, so he topped it piece by piece.

But rather than chop the tree down entirely, he stopped sawing at the height he wanted for the totem pole.

After the trunk was peeled, Roether found a metal-cutting cold chisel was needed to carve out his creation. The wood was too full of sap to yield to conventional wood chisels.

Home Children at State Fair

Sixteen children from the Pickaway County Home enjoyed a day at the State Fair in Columbus yesterday.

Home Superintendent Winfield Koch said the trip was made in three cars. The local group arrived early and stayed late in order to see the many sights at the Fair.

The day started off on a successful note when Pickaway County Representative Ed Wallace arrived at the Fairgrounds with passes for all the children.

Koch said by a stroke of luck he met John Enright of the Gooding Amusement Co. early in the day. Enright provided the children with passes for the many rides at the gala event.

According to Koch, the entire group enjoyed the day, but was more than a little tired on arriving home.

The rockets were described as similar to those which shot Soviet astronauts Gherman Titov and Yuri Gagarin on space flights around the globe.

The announcement of the super-super-bomb came as no surprise, however, Khrushchev on Aug. 9 said Soviet scientists had suggested they could build a bomb equal to 100 million tons of TNT and that he would give the signal for construction if prospects for peace did not improve.

U.S. military experts said then it would be comparatively easy to build such a bomb but not worthwhile from a military standpoint since present nuclear bombs were powerful enough to wipe out an entire city.

The announcement landed on the Soviet people like an atom bomb itself. Only lately have they been given information to let them know how seriously the West is reacting to Khrushchev's Berlin proposals. This announcement appeared likely to bring it home to them with a bang.

It told them: "The Soviet people, the Soviet government cannot but reckon with the fact that, like 20 years ago, ominous clouds of war are once again overhanging the approaches to our motherland, that West Germany and the present allies of German militarists are feverishly engaged in military preparations."

Business Briefs

Jack Sherick's School of Dancing will open next month for its fifth year in Circleville.

Sherick has arranged his schedule this year so that he will be able to give personal instruction at the Circleville studio.

He has 31 years of experience in the dancing profession and is recognized as one of the leading instructors in the country.

Sherick's advanced students appear on the Sherick Dance Program each Sunday at noon on WTVN-TV, Channel 6, Columbus.

Enrollment for dancing lessons will be taken at the studio, Pickaway and Franklin Sts., from 3-7 p. m. Wednesday and Thursday.

Ohio Redevelopment Coordinator Selected

WASHINGTON (AP)—Allen H. Pett of Sioux Falls, S.D., has been named field coordinator of the Area Redevelopment Administration (ARA) for Ohio. He has been the executive director of Industrial and Development Foundation, Inc., in Sioux Falls since 1957.

Pett will act as liaison man between the ARA and local communities seeking federal aid under the new program to promote economic development for depressed areas. The post pays about $10,500 a year.

Living Totem Pole

CLEVELAND (AP) — A firmly rooted totem pole stands on the front lawn of George Roether's home.

The colorfully painted pole is carved from the trunk of a live maple tree. The tree's roots threatened Roether's sewer lines, so he topped it piece by piece.

But rather than chop the tree down entirely, he stopped sawing at the height he wanted for the totem pole.

After the trunk was peeled, Roether found a metal-cutting cold chisel was needed to carve out his creation. The wood was too full of sap to yield to conventional wood chisels.

Home Children at State Fair

Sixteen children from the Pickaway County Home enjoyed a day at the State Fair in Columbus yesterday.

Home Superintendent Winfield Koch said the trip was made in three cars. The local group arrived early and stayed late in order to see the many sights at the Fair.

The day started off on a successful note when Pickaway County Representative Ed Wallace arrived at the Fairgrounds with passes for all the children.

Koch said by a stroke of luck he met John Enright of the Gooding Amusement Co. early in the day. Enright provided the children with passes for the many rides at the gala event.

According to Koch, the entire group enjoyed the day, but was more than a little tired on arriving home.
